600 Guests Escape In Del Monte Hotel Fire

MILLION LOSS IN BURNING HISTORIC BUILDING

Announce Plans to Erect Largest Resort Structure On Site of Ruins

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 27.—The largest resort hotel in California will rise from the ashes of the fire which early today destroyed the main building of historic Hotel Del Monte with a loss of approximately $1,000,000 This announcement was made by Carl S. Stanley, manager of the hotel, as the blaze still smouldered.

Two detached wings of the hotel were saved by the use of dynamite and betwen 600 and 700 guests who fled to safety scantily clad, were being cared for today in those other adjacent structures.

Despite the fact that the main building went up like tinder after the fire was first discovered, all escaped safely and without injury.

The flames were discovered by the night clerk. A crash on the roof attracted his attention. Going outside he discovered the whole cupola of the structure was in flames.

Notified by Phone

Rushing to the telephone room, the clerk and operator notified each of the more than 600 guests that the building was afire and hastily arousing hotel employes, assisted them in leaving the burning building.

Through smoke filled halls many of the guests groped their way in night clothes. Many failed to bring with them any of their belongings. Huddled together on the huge lawn in front of the big structure, the guests watched the building burn.

Despite the haste with which the hostelry was emptied a hurried check showed that all escaped and that no one was even slightly injured.

Aged Woman Rescued

The first thought of hotel employes was for the safety of Mrs. Joseph Quigley, 80, who for many years has been a guest of the hotel. She was carried from the hotel and apparently suffered no ill effects from shock.

The Pacific Grove and Monterey fire departments were hastily summoned and fought, aided by hundreds of volunteers, to save at least a portion of the historic buildings. Dynamite was resorted to in an effort to save the huge wings of the hotel, but the destruction of the small center building by the explosive only seemed to spread the fire to the remaining parts.

The golf tournament was called off and a special train leaving shortly after 9 o'clock carried the Olympic club members back to San Francisco.

Most of the other guests by noon had checked out also as the burned section of the hotel included the dining room and kitchen.

Children of Railroad Magnate Start Action

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A legal fight between three children of the late James Hill, railroad magnate, and Louis J. Hill of St. Paul, the oldest son, involving nearly a million dollars, was disclosed today when Supreme Court Justice William Harmon Black approved a $500 bond in connection with the transfer of the action from the state to the federal courts. The transfer was obtained because Louis Hill resides in St. Paul and the three complainants in New York.

AIR MAIL TO LOS ANGELES PROMISED

Southern California Plane May Connect With Main Route at Salt Lake

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—As a result of a conference held here today, attended by a number of prominent city officials and Congressmen, Walter F. Lineberger and John D. Fredericks, this city, was practically assured a direct connection with the trans-continental air mail route by Luther Bell, traffic manager of the United States air mail service.

"The needs of the city for the benefit of the direct air mail service can be better shown by a more active use of the present service," Bell told the gathering, and said that his recommendation to Postmaster-General New will depend upon the increased use of the service between the present date and October 12, when a second conference will be called here.

As planned, the mail leaving here by plane would connect with a second plane bearing mail from San Francisco, in Salt Lake City, and thence continue its route eastward, placing this city in closer communication with both Chicago and New York.

JAPAN HINTS U. S. POLICY CONTINUES AFFRONT

American Government Sees Ominous Reminder In Diplomatic Refusal

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The rejection by M. Adachi, Japanese delegate to the League of Nations meeting, of the Geneva arbitration protocol is not final, the government reserving decision until the full draft of the protocol has been received in Tokio. This declaration was made this afternoon to Internatioanl News Service by a high foreign office official. Premier Kato remained silent on the matter, declining to discuss it.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Japan's diplomatic refusal to join with the other world powers at Geneva in adopting the League of Nations' new peace system met a two-fold interpretation in government circles here today.

1—It serves as an ominous reminder that the barring of Japanese immigrants by the United States is still rankling in Tokio.

2—It constituted a form of notice that Japan does not intend to allow the league to tie her hands in China, should developments in that tumultuous country reach a stage where Tokio might consider it expedient to "intervene."

Officials of this government today were primarily interested in the first explanation of Japan's surprising refusal to sign the arbitration protocol.

Popular Issue

Japan has made no secret of her intention of keeping the immigration question alive. It is an issue of tremendous popularity with the Japanese masses, and one which, above all others, is calculated to keep public sentiment in Nippon aroused to the boiling pitch where the United States is concerned.

Nothing that has ever occurred in the relations of the two countries has knit the nation more toward "hating America" than the affront provided by the barring of Japanese nationals.

United States Views

Administration officials long have anticipated that Japan had intended to take her grievance to the League of Nations and endeavor to get it "arbitrated."

The United States, of course,

Garbutt Admits Buying Hammer; Denies Attack

PASADENA, Cal., Sept. 27.—Although confessing, according to police, he purchased the steel hammer used to stun Mrs. Clifton R. Hunn, wealthy Chicago woman, in her Pasadena home before she was shot to death, Harry Garbutt, former Illinois prison inmate, today denied he had attacked Mrs. Hunn.

Garbutt told police he brought the hammer to the Hunn residence the night Mrs. Hunn was murdered, following a dinner at which F. R. Gibson, retired contractor, and himself were guests, but claimed Gibson struck the wealthy welfare worker with the steel tool. Police said the chain of evidence against Garbutt was now practically complete.

Tom Taggart, Indian Politician, Stricken

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Tom Taggart, veteran Indiana politician, was operated on for appendicitis in Massachusetts General hospital today. His larger appendix was removed after a local anaesthetic had been administered. Dr. Daniel Jones performed the operation. Taggart's condition was said to be favorable. His wife, daughter and son were at the hospital.

Stormy Session Over Tent Show Ends With Tie Vote Being Cast

Mayor Robinson Joins With Councilmen Davis And Gilhuly In Reconsidering Refusal, Then Ballots Against Permission

In a tense session this morning, crammed with pointed talk and culminating in a vote that completely upset the "dopesters'" predictions, the Glendale City Council again denied, through a tie vote, the application of J. B. Brown & Co. for a ninety-day permit to conduct a tent theatre for Murphy's Comedians on the property of L. H. Wilson on Los Angeles street near South San Fernando road, during the period required to construct their permanent $250,000 theatre in Casa Verdugo, on the site of the present tent.

The vote was 2 to 2, Councilmen S. A. Davis and S. S. Gilhuly recording themselves in favor of granting the permit, and Mayor Spencer Robinson and Councilman Asa Hall opposing the measure.

Councilman C. E. Kimlin was absent from the meeting, which was a special session, called yesterday by Mayor Robinson, "to accommodate Councilmen Davis and Gilhuly."

Mayor's Bombshell

The vote was preceded by a vote to reconsider the action taken by the council at the regular Thursday session, when a similar application from J. B. Brown & Co. was voted down, 3 to 1, Councilmen Davis and Gilhuly being on the affirmative side of the defeated measure. On the vote to consider, Mayor Robinson joined with these two councilmen, leading the large audience that packed the council chambers to believe he intended to side with them in voting to grant the permit. His subsequent "no" vote, therefore, produced in the room the sensation of a bombshell suddenly bursting over the audience.

Makes Statement

Virgil B. Stone, city manager, preceded the voting with a statement that representatives of charitable organizations had appeared in his office yesterday morning with C. C. Pitts and W. H. Lee of J. B. Brown & Co., asking if some way could not be found to have the council reconsider its action of Thursday, owing to the fact that these institutions were to profit from the sale of tickets to the new theatre of Murphy's Comedians, and that it was because of their solicitations he had summoned the members of the council to consider the advisability of calling a special session.

Annexation Talk

Following the vote denying the application, which was taken early in the stormy session, a rumble of discontent was heard to echo through the council chambers. One resident of Casa Verdugo jumped to his feet and cried out:

"If the Glendale City Council is going to be as narrow-minded as the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, there is no use in this community annexing with your city."

Another resident of Casa Verdugo demanded:

"Why is it two men on this council are for big business, when 99 per cent of the people of Glen-

Preacher-Prisoner Is Anxious Now to Live

MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Sept. 27.—Overwhelming desire to live has come over Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, who not only poisoned his wife to death, but conspired with Mrs. Elsie Sweetin to destroy her husband, Wilford, with the same poison. The slayer, who was expelled from his church yesterday, quietly sits in the dilapidated White county jail at Nashville, Ill., still believing he has a useful life to live, and fears greatly to think of what the future holds in store for him.

"Yes," said the clergyman, with his hands sunk deeply in his trouser pockets, "I want to live more than ever. I'm sorry —so sorry— for what I've done. But I want to live. I was always, until recently, a good man. I never sinned before. I just can't tell how it happened or what brought it about."

LOUISIANA DENIES BALLOT TO LA FOLLETTE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 27.—The Louisiana registrar or voters, Thomas Kille, of this city, today refused to certify a petition containing one thousand signatures, that the name of Senator Robert M. La Follette be placed on the ballot for the November elections. Unless La Follette followers are successful in obtaining court action to overrule Kille's decision, this means that La Follette has lost the state of Louisiana even before voters go to the polls.

FLYERS OFF FOR LONG TRIP TO OREGON

Pass Out of California At Noon on Journey of About 500 Miles

BULLETIN

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 27.—The flyers are reported over Eugene, Ore., at 2:15 p. m.

BULLETIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The three round the world flyers who are en route to Eugene, Ore., from San Francisco on the next to the last lap of their air trip around the world, passed out of California and into Oregon at 12:33 p. m. today.

The flyers passed over Ashland, Ore., at 12:39.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Winging their way toward an official completion of their trip around the world, America's world air path pioneers hopped off at 9:03 o'clock today headed for Eugene, Ore., a distance of approximately 500 miles. Sunday they plan to complete their 28,000 jaunt at Seattle, Wash.

The flyers were apparently making good time on their way northward. They were reported passing over Orland at 10:55 a. m. and Corning, Cal., at 11:04 a. m.

The planes passed over Gerber, Cal., at 11:11 and at 11:50 were nearing the Oregon line, passing over Dunsmuir, Cal., at that time.

In 'V' Formation

Lieutenant Lowell Smith in the Chicago, was the first of the three globe circlers to take the air. He got away to a beautiful start and less than a minute later Lieutenant Leigh Wade in the Boston followed him into the air.

Lieutenant Eric Nelson in the New Orleans shot into the air at 9:04:30 o'clock and the three fell into the 'V' formation in which they fly, heading northward across the bay.

No Stops Planned

No stops are planned on the trip. The flight was scheduled to be made via Sacramento and then northward over the lines of the Southern Pacific. The air line to Eugene is 456 miles, but the flyers estimated they would fly nearly 500.

In case of necessity of refueling, a stop may be made at Medford, Ore., although the flyers did not expect to stop there.

Arrest Man and Wife In Alleged Love Death

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Sept. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tate, prominent members of the Church of God of Williamson county, were arrested here today on instructions of Sheriff George Galligan, as suspects in Little Egypt's latest alleged "love pact" that resulted, authorities charge, in the death of Joseph Hearington, 34 year old Johnston City coal miner. The couple were removed to the Marion jail. Before her removal to Marion, Mrs. Tate, after several hours of grilling at the hands of City Attorney Frank Trobaugh, signed a statement, in the presence of witnesses and under oath, partially incriminating Tate in the death of her first husband, Hearington, whose body was exhumed yesterday afternoon.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Oscar Masten, aged 17, super-intellectual, of Monrovia, is en route to Ione and the state school of industry there for having a stolen typewriter in his possession. Oscar was attending the University of Southern California, it is said, and is quoted as having told Judge Archbald in juvenile court that:

"The people of Monrovia do not appreciate me. Some of them think I am a little off because I have studied psychology in all of its branches."

Probation officers substantiate his claims of mental attainments, but doubt he is the son of an Indian swami. The judge opined that Ione would "bring him down to earth out of the clouds his intellect has transported him into."

SHANGHAI, China, Sept. 27.—When Chinese soldiers entered the Standard Oil compound in the outskirts of Shanghai this morning they were repulsed by United States marines doing guard duty over the property. There was no bloodshed. The Chinese forces were part of the Lu Yung Hsiang troops. The marines landed from war vessels in the harbor and disarmed the Chinese who endeavored to seize the property.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—Declaring that the four justices of the state supreme court who barred the La Follette presidential electors from the California ballot, "have shown their courage in rendering an opinion according to law, even if they had reason to suppose they would be assailed by everybody of Socialist feeling in the land," Governor Richardson gave out a statement today urging that the people of the state uphold the court's action.

"Any attack upon the courts is an assault upon our government," the governor said. "Now is the time for believers in law and order and the preservation of our republican institutions to rally to the support of the supreme court of California."

WASHINGTON BEATS RED SOX WITH 7-5 SCORE

Yankees Loses to Phillies, 4 to 3, Dropping Back Two Full Games

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—By defeating Philadelphia 5 to 1 at the Polo ground this afternoon while Brooklyn was losing to Boston, 3 to 2, the New York Giants won their fourth consecutive National league championship.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—The Washington Senators got a strangle hold on first place in the American league pennant fight here this afternoon by trouncing the Red Sox, 7 to 5, in the second game of the series.

The worst that can happen to the Nationals now is a tie for first place with the Yanks, who were beaten by the Athletics today, 4 to 3, and by this defeat dropping back to two full games behind the Senators. Each team has two more games yet to play. Another victory for Washington or another defeat for the Yanks would clinch the flag for the Senators. Should Washington drop its remaining two games and New York win its remaining pair, a tie for first place would result, with a three-game post season series necessary to decide the pennant winner.

New York Yankees Drop Game to Phillies, 4 to 3

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—Although they went down fighting, the New York Yankees, American league champions, this afternoon dropped an all-important game with the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 3. A Yankee victory was almost necessary to keep them in the running for the 1924 pennant.

ARDMORE, Pa., Sept. 27.—Bobby Jones of Atlanta, won the honor for which he has striven these many years, when he stepped home to a victory over George von Elm of Los Angeles, in the final round of the national amateur golf championship this afternoon. Score 9 up and 8 to play. It was an overwhelming victory for the Atlanta lad, comparable only with his defeat of Francis Ouimet yesterday by a score of 11 up and 10 to play. Jones has been one of America's leading amateurs from 1916 but never won the title until today, although he was open champion in 1923.

Epinard was second and Wise Counsellor third. Ladkin's time was 1:36 2-5. It was only two-fifths of a second behind John P. Grier's track record for the mile. Ladkin was liberally supported at odds of 4 to 5. Clarence Kummer gave the Belmont colt a carefully judged ride. Ladkin closed with an amazing flash of speed, lasting to beat Epinard by a half length. Wise Counsellor, who had defeated Epinard on Labor day at Belmont park, finished a length back of the French thoroughbred.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S BIBLE COURSE
Conducted by REV. C. H. CHRISMAN
GOSPEL TABERNACLE CHURCH

Sunday Nights, 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock

III.—THE INSPIRATION OF THE BIBLE PROVEN BY THE LITERAL FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY

An authority has stated that the Bible is the only book among the so-called sacred books that contains predictions. The Bible, as God's own Word to us, stands or false in the literal fulfillment of its predictions. If it can be proven that the Old Testament Prophecies concerning Christ, many of them made 1000 years before He came, were fulfilled in the minutest detail, and without the slightest exaggeration or deviation, then all honest men ought to give respectful credence to such overwhelming evidence. There are twenty-five Old Testament prophecies concerning the betrayal, trial, death, and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ that were uttered by many different voices at different times during the five centuries from 1000 B. C. to 500 B. C., yet they were all literally fulfilled within twenty-four hours on the day of the crucifixion. We will give as many of these as space permits.

1—Sold for Thirty Pieces of Silver. Prophecy: "So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver"—Zech. 11:12. Date, 517 B. C. Fulfillment: "Then Judas went unto the chief priests and said unto them, What will you give me and I will deliver Him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty peices of silver"—Matt. 26: 14, 15.

2—Betrayed by a Friend. Prophecy: "For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then could I have borne it, but it was thou, a man my equal, my guide and mine acquaintance" — Ps 55:12-14. Fulfillment: "And forthwith Judas came to Jesus and said, Hail, Master and kissed Him, and Jesus said, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus and took him"—Matt. 26:29, 50.

3—The Money Cast to the Potter. Prophecy. "And the Lord said unto me, cast it unto the potter, a goodly price I was priced at of them. And they took the thirty pieces of silver and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lord"—Zech 11:13. Fulfillment: "And Judas cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces and they took counsel and bought with them the potters' field"—Matt. 27:5—7, 9, 10.

4—Hands and Feet Pierced. Prophecy: "They pierced my hands and my feet"—Ps. 22:16. Fulfillment: "And when they were come to the place that is called Calvary there they crucified Him"—Luke 23:33. "Except I see the print of the nails" —Thomas John 22:25-27.

5—Crucified with Thieves. Prophecy: "He was numbered with the transgressors"—Isa. 53:12. Fulfillment: "And with him they crucified two thieves. And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, 'And he was numbered with the transgressors' "—Mark 15:27-28.

6—Garments Parted and Lots Cast. Prophecy: "They parted my garments among them and cast lots upon my vesture."—Ps. 22:18. Fulfillment: "Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. That the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, they parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots."—John 19:23, 24.

7—His Forsaken Cry. Prophecy: "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me."—Ps. 22:1. Fulfillment: "Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me." Matt. 27:46.

8—Gall and vinegar given him. Prophecy: "They gave me also gall for my meat and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink." —Ps. 69:29. Fulfillment: "After this Jesus saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar and they filled a sponge with vinegar and put it upon hyssop and put it to his mouth"—John 19:28, 29.

9—Friends Stood Afar Off. Prophecy: "My lovers and my friends stand aloof from me and my kinsmen stand afar off".—Ps. 38:11. Fulfillment: "And all his acquaintance and the women that followed him from Galilee stood afar off beholding these things. Luke 23:49.

10—His Bones not Broken. Prophecy: "He keepeth all his bones, not one of them is broken" —Ps. 34:20. Fulfillment: "When they came to Jesus and saw that he was dead already they brake not his legs. These things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken:" John 19:33, 36.

11—Buried in a Rich Man's Tomb. Prophecy: "His grave was appointed with the wicked and made with the rich in his death"—Isa. 53:9. Literally Fulfilled. See Matt. 27:57—60. Now note the hazards of fulfillment. 1. The Roman law demanded that the body should not be buried at all. 2. The Jewish law demanded that the body be buried on the day of execution. 3. There were two strong reasons why the Jews would hasten this burial, the Sabbath was approaching and it was the Passover Sabbath. 4. They actually begin preparations for speedy burial in the breaking of the legs.

He was to have been buried in the criminal's cemetery, the Valley of Hinnom and then at the very last moment, at evening as the Sabbath was approaching, when there seemed no prospect of this prophecy being fulfilled, came Joseph a rich man of Arimathea and claimed the body of Jesus! Prophecy is history prewritten. It is a miracle of utterance. It is the external evidence of the inspiration of the Bible. Therefore every Bible student should master the prophetic Scriptures.

The subject for Sunday night, September 28 will be, "The Proof of Inspiration by Undesigned Coincidences." The course is repeated on Wednesday nights at 7 o'clock for adults.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Sept. 27.—A petition protesting against the proposed parallel parking along San Fernando boulevard, signed by over 100 business people along that thoroughfare, has been presented to the city trustees.

The argument advanced by the protestants is mainly that parallel parking will reduce the number of cars which may be parked, with the following argument that business will thus be injured. So far as can be learned none of them attempt to argue that diagonal parking is safer for the public, which was the consideration borne in mind by the trustees when they framed the ordinance for parallel parking.

No action was taken at the last meeting of the trustees, either in connection with the petition or in regard to further action on the proposed ordinance.

In the vote on the first passing of the ordinance last week, Trustees Watson and Mullin voted for it and Trustees Nielsen and Jackson against it. The deciding vote was cast by Mayor J. C. Crawford, in favor of the change.

Jack Pickell, formerly with the state motorcycle squad, operating at Santa Ana, has taken a position with the Burbank police department as a motorcycle officer. His addition to the local force makes the force complete, for the first time since the retirement of three of the former officers a short time ago.

Mrs. Sadie Rae Boyd and Miss Norma Neff of Newberry, Ind., have arrived here and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pugsley of 333 Tujunga avenue. Mrs. Boyd is the youngest sister of Mrs. Pugsley and expects to make her home here. Miss Neff is the daughter of another sister of Mrs. Pugsley, and will remain here for the winter.

Mrs. Mary Smith of 405 Tujunga avenue is in Hollywood, visiting her niece, Mrs. Henry Stubby. She will remain a few days.

POSITION ON RELIGIOUS TEACHING

Seventh-Day Adventists In Statement on Question In Public Schools

The following statement was given out here today at the Pacific Coast headquarters of the Seventh-day Adventists, defining the position of that church on the question of teaching religion in the public schools, which has now become one of the pressing questions engaging the attention of educators in the United States:

"Seventh-day Adventists are opposed to any teaching of religion in the state schools, as they are opposed to the teaching in those schools of that which conflicts with religion. Our attitude is based not on the supposition that the wrong religion instead of the right one would be taught in the schools, and certainly not on any opposition to religious education in itself, for we are not behind other religious bodies in recognizing the necessity of education for the heart as well as for the head and the hand, and spare no effort to provide church schools for our youth in all grades of school work. But while recognizing that the moral training of the youth is the nation's most imperative need, we believe that it is not the province of the state to undertake this task, and that any attempt on its part to do so will only bring new evils in the place of curing such as already exist.

Not in Agreement

"As regards the proposition now being put forward, to teach a religion embracing only the fundamental truths upon which Protestants, Catholics and Jews are agreed, we point to the fact that the different religious bodies have not yet reached an agreement as to what these fundamentals are. Take, for example, the matter of obedience to law; certainly no moral training can ignore this obligation. But when we come to consider the highest law—the

CHIEF PAYS WHEN NOSE MISTAKEN

Burbank Man Gets Damage For Raid Prompted by Odors From Silo

Chief John H. Long, of the Burbank police department, is $250 poorer because he came out second best in a damage suit brought by Dr. Frank L. Burleigh of 378 Alameda street, Burbank, has learned by a painful and unique experience to detect the difference between corn mash and ensilage. His nose now knows, in other words the difference between a still and a silo.

The action in which Dr. Burleigh asked $75,000 damages for a raid on his premises by Chief Long and his dry squad, was heard yesterday in Judge Stephens' department of the Superior court, Los Angeles. A similar action against Judge A. A. Crawford of the Burbank police court, who issued the search warrant under authority of which the physician's home raided, tripped its toes on a technicality and was dismissed.

In rendering his decision, Judge Stephens held that as the affidavit on which Chief Long obtained his search warrant, did not state there was liquor in Dr. Burleigh's home "for sale or for transportation for sale," the warrant was void. Lawyers interested in decisions on the Wright act regard this as establishing an important precedent.

Chief Long's affidavit stated he "had reason to believe" there was liquor in the physician's house because it "smelled like a still" around the premises.

"Naturally it smelled like a still," declared Dr. Burleigh. "The dairy across the street has a silo and anybody ought to know that a silo smells like a still."

"I will not put a burdensome penalty upon this officer," said Judge Stephens in pronouncing the $250 judgment in favor of Dr. Burleigh, "but I must make it plain to Chief Long that the rights of citizens must be respected."

Returns From Europe

MISS EDITH LINDSAY, talented dancing teacher, who will reopen her Glendale studio at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, has recently returned from several months of travel and study abroad.

Inspired by a summer's travel and study abroad, Miss Edith Lindsay, talented dancing teacher of Hollywood and Glendale, will open her Glendale classes at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, October 4, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, Central avenue at Lexington drive.

With her mother, and Miss Sarah Chandler of Canada boulevard, Verdugo Woodlands, Miss Lindsay returned recently from abroad, where she visited all of the noted art galleries of the world from London to Rome, and made an intensive study of them. While in London she studied in the Tiller school and also in the opera in Paris. The latter was a real privilege as the ballet of the opera is not available to the general public.

Miss Lindsay and Miss Chandler were privileged to study daily with Mme. Zambelli, Mons Aveline and Mons Staats, to the extent that they have many of the wonderful dances of the operas as they are danced always step for step.

Although having had marvelous training in her art under the best instructors this country affords, Miss Lindsay broadens this art by summer study, giving her pupils the advantage of her progression.

While in Europe she visited in London, Paris, Marseilles, Genoa, Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, Stresa and Interlaken, and also attended the Olympic. While in New York she enjoyed daily study with her former dancing master, M. Fokine.

In Milan Miss Lindsay and Miss Chandler had the pleasure of dancing on the stage of La Scala, the home of the ballet and the largest stage in the world.

In announcing the opening of her classes, Miss Lindsay cordially invites all interested to visit her classes, held daily in her main studio, 5756 Carlton way, Hollywood, and at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse in Glendale Saturday morning.

Miss Lindsay and Miss Chandler are planning to give a concert shortly and will present many new dances and costumes from abroad.

Comment

By GIL A. COWAN

Will Payne, in the current Saturday Evening Post, accidentally explained, perhaps, why Kansas and Nebraska old timers, and particularly newspaper editors, dearly love to whangdoodle California's prosperity.

Many will recollect, as Payne does, the days when the prairie cities were in their prime and great industrial cities were subdivided, only to see the "booms" fail because conditions were not suitable.

And now these cynical victims scoff at California, unknowingly, as it were. For California has just what Kansas and Nebraska lacked.

First of all, this southland has the most equable climate to be desired. Second, it has all potential raw materials for manufacturing within an economical transportation radius. Third, it has ideal labor conditions. Fourth, it has half of the world as a market, by water routes, and half the United States by rail in competition with old established centers.

Business conditions are good in Glendale, as witness the advertising in The Glendale Evening News of yesterday. The Glendale Music Co., with its four page expansion sale announcement, is to be congratulated on availing itself of the first opportunity of such a comprehensive advertising campaign. Its sale not only will attract a large number of shoppers, but aid in promoting "trade in Glendale."

Merchants who concentrate their advertising efforts in this medium, who consistently advertise as Salmacia brothers do their musical goods, and offer such genuine bargains, are bound to succeed.

And there are many others who recognize the business-getting power of The Evening News, as witness the display and particularly the classified advertising columns.

BETTER HOMES, GREATEST AIM

Nowhere have conditions changed so greatly in the last generation as in the home; nowhere has evolution been so apparent as in the work of the housewife. There was a time not so long ago when it was thought anyone could keep a house and manage a home without any preparation or the least aptitude for such work. But today, home-making and housekeeping have taken their rightful place as the most important of all professions, for on the housewife rests the responsibility for the health, the happiness, the well-being and the efficiency of each member of the family.

The housekeeper is faced with the problem of keeping her family well nourished, serving their food attractively, and at the same time being economical—for waste is no part of efficiency, whether it be in the home or the business office. And, the high cost of food products in recent years has been an obstacle in the way of economical home management with which many a woman has found it difficult to cope.

Home-making does not consist in cooking alone. There are other things to be considered in making home attractive and keeping the family up to par, both in health and disposition. Many a woman who has unlimited means at her command has not succeeded in furnishing her home so that it is inviting. Others with very few dollars to spend give their rooms that cozy, homey, attractive look that invites one to come in and stay. It is all in knowing what is appropriate for the size of the room, and its exposure, what colors will harmonize with each other and with the surroundings, and many other things that mere man knows nothing about. Most women know that individuality is the keynote of an attractive home just as it is of a charming person, but so many women have not learned how to achieve this much desired result.

Glendale is known everywhere as a city of homes. Naturally her home-makers are efficient. But, like successful workers in other lines, they are always hungering to learn more about their jobs. With this in mind The Glendale Evening News has secured the services of an expert in home management and domestic science to give a series of lectures to the women of Glendale, or rather to conduct a school in which women may have help with their own particular problems.

Mrs. Florence Austin Chase is not merely a woman of local reputation as a good cook and a teacher of domestic science. She is far more than that. She has made a study of every phase of home-making and home management as well as of dietetics and food preparation. She has helped women in every corner of the United States to be better home-makers, and in doing this, she is a public benefactor, for harmonious and happy surroundings at home and nourishing and well prepared food have a tremendous influence upon the mental attitude of the man at his work and the child at school.

OCEANS UNITE PEOPLES

Ramsay Traquair, in the Atlantic Monthly, finds in the waterways of the earth the key to the rise and fall of civilizations. He points out that in history seafaring people have always been dominant and that lasting civilizations have invariably grown up on the shores of seas. The most momentous development in history, according to this writer, was the expansion of the old world to include the Atlantic basin. He thinks it was not so important that Columbus discovered America as that he discovered the confines of the Atlantic ocean. "We should study maps of the seas with the lands around them, not maps of the land," he says, for seas unite rather than separate.

Just as in ancient times the Mediterranean peoples felt themselves united by a common culture, a similar sense of unity is welding together now the commonwealths of the Atlantic, for mechanical triumphs have made the Atlantic shrink until it is for us smaller than the Mediterranean was for the ancients.

America has two choices, this writer states. She may build up a self-centered river civilization in the watershed of the Mississippi, cut off from the world currents and doomed to decay, or she may turn toward the Atlantic and the Pacific, assuming her role in the ever-expanding cultures identified with the shores of these great oceans.

It is not very likely that our future will see a "stagnating Mississippi river civilization" when we have some of the most wonderful cities and harbors of the world on our Atlantic coast and more than one rapidly developing port on the Pacific. Neither is the "oriental civilization growing up on the shores of the Pacific in America," of which he speaks, likely to materialize.

ADJUSTING HUMAN NATURE

One of the things the world needs today is an adjustment between human beings. So many people are narrow in their convictions and want to regulate other people's lives. Others are too lenient in their own conduct and in the way they regard the acts of others. There seems to be so few who are traveling in the middle of the road, nearly all are going to one extreme or the other. This faction is saying, "Everything you desire to do must be wrong." The motto of the others seems to be, "Anything I want to do must be right."

If we could only strike a balance and all earnestly strive for truth. If the bigoted could only be more tolerant and could realize that pleasures are not all sins. If those who have a tendency to be lax in their conduct could meet them half way and acknowledge that their desires are not always good nor right the world would be happier and better.

FIGHTING PROGRESS

Christopher Morley, essayist and wit, says, "There is no squabbling so violent as that between people who accepted an idea yesterday and those who will accept the same idea tomorrow." How true is this statement! How conscientiously we fight some innovation today only to accept it tomorrow as calmly as if it had always existed. And this principle may be applied all the way from bobbed hair to the eighteenth amendment to the Constitution. There are some of these things that are inevitable. We might as well accept them today as to fight against them only to retreat from our position and advocate them later.

Every progressive step in the world's history has been fought. And the fighting is done by those who very likely will support the movement in the end.

Watching a home run is good exercise—for the runner.

ANOTHER CHINESE LAUNDRYMAN!

Truth In Advertising

By DR. FRANK CRANE

The American delegates to the Advertising Convention in England were cordially received. Many things were said at this convention to indicate that the subject of advertising has passed from the region of extraordinary and unusual things into the realm of laws and customs.

Most emphasis perhaps was laid upon the slogan, "Truth in Advertising." This recognizes the great law of business which is that anyone who expects to remain in business must depend very largely upon the good will of his customers and that good will cannot be obtained unless his performance is equal to his profession.

The old motto, "caveat emptor"—let the buyer beware—has passed. Now the seller defends and protects his customer, it is a part of his calling. The good business man recognizes that unless he faithfully fulfills his promise he cannot remain in business.

I received, some time ago, a book from a mail order concern in Chicago. It was a large book and upon its front page was the statement that any of the goods advertised in it could be returned, at the expense of the house, for no matter what reason. This is a novel and unusual statement. Fifty years ago it would have been unheard of. The merchant at that time barricaded himself behind his privilege and held that the buyer must take all the consequences of his purchase no matter how disappointing it was.

Business is made up largely of good will, which has been defined as the disposition of any purchaser to return to the seller from whom he has purchased before. This good will cannot be obtained unless it is founded upon the fact that the merchant's representations have always been truthful.

Naturally the buyer is skeptical and, notwithstanding all that has been done, he is often deluded by extravagant advertising. The wise merchant, therefore, will take care that his advertisements habitually understate and do not overstate his case.

Little by little, fraud and chicanery eliminate themselves. It is demonstrated that, as business rises to the dignity of a profession, it must be based upon truth and honesty. In so doing it attracts to itself the best portion of the people and, more and more, business becomes a preferred career.

There is no doubt that the era of the priest and the soldier is past and the era of the business man is at hand. For business remains the one calling above all others because it is engaged in the great business of supplying mankind its nedes, in administering to the life of the people and not to their death.

Horoscope

Contrary incluences disturb this day, according to astrology. Although Mercury and Neptune are in benefic aspect, Jupiter and Uranus are strongly adverse.

Evidently there is to be good news from overseas that will be helpful to the international interests of the United States.

If the stars are rightly interpreted those who believe in the isolation of this country, as far as possible from European entanglements, are to be disappointed.

All the signs are read as presaging great need of wise diplomacy and the aspects that are supposed to apply to world affairs affect even the family.

Many divorces will be recorded this month, but it is prophesied that there is to be a new order of things.

The seers declare that the social pendulum has swung as far toward liberty and license as it is possible to go and that a strong reaction is at hand.

The new literature and poetry are to present spiritual ideals and not material ambitions as of supreme importance, if the seers can be believed.

Fairly favorable business prognostications are made for next months, which will show a healthy revival of trade, although it may not be up to the best records.

Warning is given to merchants to use wise foresight, for that will have many surprises six weeks hence.

This is a better month for wooing than for wedding and September folk should remember that those born in March are supposed to be their best choice.

This is supposed to be a rule unfavorable to women, especially to their commercial ambitions.

It is not a lucky direction of the stars for making new acquaintances of opposite sex.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have rather a strenuous year and they should keep the health in order as there may be severe strain.

Children born this day may be more interested in amusements than in work, but these subjects of Libra usually have fine natures.

Today's Poem

"WERE BUT MY SPIRIT LOOSED UPON THE AIR"

Were but my spirit loosed upon the air—
By some High Power who could Life's chains unbind,
Set free to seek what most it longs to find—
To no proud Court of Kings would I repair;
I would but climb, once more, a narrow stair,
When day was wearing late, and dusk was kind,
And one should greet me to my failings blind,
Content so I but shared his twilight there.
Nay! well I know he waits not as of old—
I could not find him in the old-time place—
I must pursue him, made by sorrow bold,
Through worlds unknown, in strange celestial race,
Whose mystic round no traveller has told,
From star to star until I see his face again.

Who's Who

The problems of ex-service men are by no means unknown to James A. Drain, new commander of the American Legion. Drain is an attorney in Washington, D. C., and has personally handled the cases of over a thousand veterans seeking aid through the U. S. Veterans' Bureau and other agencies.

The new commander was born in Illinois in 1870. He has practiced law in Nebraska, Washington and the District of Columbia. After serving in the Spanish-American war, he lost his right hand in a hunting accident, but despite this handicap was accepted in the ordinance department of the army, where he served overseas with distinction.

Drain was one of the first department commanders of the legion in the capital and for the past three years has been chairman of the district rehabitation committee. His first army experience was with the Washington state national guard, where he started as a private and finished as a brigadier general.

Making Presidents

By H. Irving King

In 1800—
THOMAS JEFFERSON ELECTED

In the election of 1800 John Adams and Thomas Jefferson were again arrayed against each other in a contest of intense bitterness.

If the preceding election had seen the introduction of the political party idea into American politics this one saw another innovation—the holding of party "caucuses" as they were called, the germs of the modern national convention. They were simply gatherings of the senators and representatives in Congress of like political faith at which party policies and ways and means of conducting the campaign were discussed. No nominations were made; but the candidates for President and Vice-President were as definitely indicated as they are today by formal nomination.

John Adams was the Federalist candidate for President and Charles C. Pinckney of South Carolina, a soldier of the Revolution who had been a member of the Constitutional Convention and envoy to France, was the candidate for Vice-President. On the Republican side the candidates were Jefferson and Burr. With the exception of one vote for John Jay, the electors this time voted only for the accepted candidates for President and Vice-President. though, of course, voting for each of them for President.

Jefferson and Burr received the same number of votes—73. Adams got 65 and his running mate, Pinckney, 64. The Federalists and their ideas were "dumped"—party government had come, and come to stay. But the election must go into the House to decide between Jefferson and Burr. Though never a candidate for the Presidency, Burr saw his opportunity and sought to "throw down" Jefferson. The balloting in the House lasted a whole week. It took 36 ballots to decide and Jefferson was finally saved by Thomas A. Byard of Delaware, a staunch Federalist, changing his vote to a blank. Burr became Vice-President, but his power and influence rapidly declined.

As to the popular vote in this election, it was small and signified little, there being no contests in those states which allowed the people to vote for electors. Party government had arrived—formal nominations and a popular vote were still below the horizon.

HOME OF NEWSPRINT

Four-fifths of all the newsprint, the technical name for paper used for printing newspapers, will be provided by Canada by the year 1930, it is estimated. Already the development of the pulp mills in the Canadian wooded sections has grown to large proportions, but if the plans now projected are fully carried out in fifteen years most of the pulp wood will come from them.

PARK PLANS OUTLINED FOR CITY

Head of Commission Tells Need of Recreational Spots In Glendale

Editor, The Evening news:—As president of the Municipal Park commission, and chairman of the special commitee on parks, in the Citizens' Bond committee, I wish to take this opportunity to explain some of the points in regard to parks in the bond election of next Tuesday, September 30.

Glendale has about the same park area as most of the villages of the United States, and in some cases a good deal less. We boast that we are the fastest growing city in America, and yet we have made practically no provision for parks and playgrounds for the welfare of our children and the entertainment of visitors.

Tract Nearer Center

The ballot next Tuesday makes provision for a park of thirty-five acres in the beautiful canyon in the Rossmoyne tract. This property is not the tract that was bought for a park two years ago. This new park site is one mile nearer the center of our city, and is on the opposite side of the Verdugo wash.

Here there is opportuinty to develop a large amphitheatre, where pageants and large gatherings may be staged. Among the beautiful live oaks there is opportunity for picnics and outings of various kinds.

Some have thought the price a little high. In my opinion, this property as a residence subdivision is worth at least $1000 more per acre than it has been priced to the city. It is some of the choicest residence property in the tract. We must seize this opportunity to get park area for Glendale, as there is no other available property within reason.

Neighborhood Park

Proposition No. 9 will provide funds to go toward the purchase of a neighborhood park in the southern part of the city. This is one of the sections of the city where we have nothing of beauty to show strangers. If possible, it is the intention of the park commission to purchase this neighborhood park adjacent to some school grounds, thereby utilizing the school ground for a playground, and also placing the school building adjacent to a beautiful little park.

It may be that a suitable tract of land cannot be purchased for the $35,000. In this case the park commission may, with the consent of the City Council, levy additional funds to make the purchase and acquire a park commensurate with the need. These neighborhood parks, which we hope to place in all sections of the city as rapidly as possible, will make our city one of the beauty spots of Southern California. In the name of the growing children of Glendale, we urge you to vote YES on Nos. 8 and 9.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Threatening to develop again into a conflagration of serious proportions, the smoking embers of the disastrous blaze which swept for nineteen days unchecked in the western section of Angeles forest sprang into life today and raged anew on a small front. The fresh outbreak is west of Moody mountain in the Twin Peaks section. More than 50,000 acres were burned over in the original fire, and foresty officials rushed large detachments of fire fighters to the new blaze to prevent further ravage of the forest.

Ora A. Blanchard is dead and N. M. Flanagan is dying here today from drinking poisoned whisky. Both were street car motormen. Police sought to identify bootleggers who sold the "death potion."

moral code of ten commandments—we find that concerning this law Protestants and Catholics do not teach alike, and that the Protestant churches are not agreed among themselves. The Methodist affirms that this law is binding today; the Disciple affirms that it has been abrogated; and the Seventh-day Adventist believes this law to be unchangeable, and observes the seventh day as specified in the fourth commandment; while the Catholic affirms none of these positions, but says that the law has been altered by authority of his church.

"The churches are split wide apart also over the most fundamental of all religious questions—that of man's relationship to a supreme Being; some affirming that man is by nature fallen and under condemnation, with no power in himself to become better, and others affirming that the story of the Garden of Eden is a fable, and that man has reached his present place by an inherent power of evolution upward from lower forms of life.

"It is apparent that any attempt to teach the fundamentals of religion in the public schools would be productive of religious controversy and would necessitate the establishment of a state religion, since the religion to be taught would have to be defined by the legislature or other state officials, would be promulgated by state teachers, and interpreted by the state courts. American principles of government are opposed to state religion, and against it all history utters an emphatic warning."

Airport Committee to Make Report Thursday

Action on the report of the Chamber of Commerce committee appointed Tuesday by directors of that body to investigate the reported nuisance of overhead wires at the Glendale Airport is expected to be taken Thursday by the City Council, according to Secretary Howard I. Wood, of the chamber of commerce. The committee, consisting of Secretary Wood, L. P. Clark, Fred Deal, P. J. Hayselden and Frank L. Fox, inspected the airport Wednesday, and they will meet with a committee of airport owners and the city council to thrash out the matter.

Attention was called to the airport situation by Dr. T. C. Young, one of the owners and himself an aviator, who stated that Glendale was about to lose a business, that, if the electric wires running to pumping plants in the north end of the field were left there, the field would be abandoned.

It is pointed out that under the bond issue up before the people Tuesday, the land included in the airport may be under the bond program as it is included in proposition 6 B, of water bearing land. Thus the council will wait and see how that issue of the proposed bond election carries.

Selects Gas Ranges For Cooking School

The A-B gas range, featured by the Good Housekeeping Shop, of 140 South Brand boulevard, will be used on the opening day of The Glendale Evening News cooking school by Mrs. Florence Austin Chase, it was determined yesterday. Other gas ranges furnished by other firms of Glendale will be used by Mrs. Chase in her demonstration work on other days.

In order that no degree of impartiality might be shown in the assignment of certain days for each company and gas range, Howard I. Woods, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was prevailed upon to draw slips bearing the name of the firms who will participate in the range demonstration, and the firms will install their ranges in the order in which their names were drawn. The names of the other firms and ranges will be announced when the cooking school starts.

ROME, Sept. 27.—A number of tiny airships, the smallest of their kind in the world, which can be handled by one aviator-observer, are to be employed by the Italian naval and military authorities for scouting and other work.

The engine is silenced, and the gas-containing envelope has been given a neutral tint, which, it is claimed, makes it practically impossible to see or hear the machine when it is moving at any considerable altitude.

OLD BUST FOUND IN YARD OF JUNK

Valued Work Brings Riches To Dealer; Bought for $25 Years Ago

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A rare and almost forgotten treasure—the charred and dusty marble bust of George Washington, done by Pierre Jean David, French sculptor of the early nineteenth century, has brought wealth to a junk dealer—address and identity unknown.

Mitchell Kennerley, president of the Anderson galleries, told the story of how the dealer bought the blackened mass for $25, hoping to resell it at a small profit as old marble—but declined to reveal the name of the junkman and the exact price he received for his treasure when its true identity was disclosed. Kennerley did admit, however, that it brought "several thousand dollars" and intimated that it "might have brought $10,000."

The bust has been declared genuine by several experts, after its discovery, blackened and dirt-encrusted, in the junk dealer's yard, where it had reposed for the last ten years. It was presented to the United States by France about 1830 and was believed to have been injured by the fire in the Library of Congress in 1851.

The sculptor himself, reading of the fire, died in the belief the famous work had been destroyed.

IN BUSINESS WORLD

By J. C. ROYLE
Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

AKRON, Ohio, Sept. 27.—Production of automobile tires is increasing in this great rubber section, but more tires are going into consumption than are being turned out of the plants. In general, the attitude of rubber men and tire manufacturers is most optimistic over the outlook for the remainder of the year. Some of the smaller manufacturers who depend on replacement business rather than on furnishing original tire equipment for new cars expect a slight letup about October 15, but the larger manufacturers are adding men to their payrolls and anticipate no reduction of outturn.

Estimates as to the speed at which tires are being produced in this district vary somewhat, but a careful check today, as comprehensive and accurate as possible, in view of the disinclination of several companies to furnish their official figures, showed a daily rate of 97,000 tires.

The Goodyear company is putting out 30,000 tires and about 40,000 tubes a day. The Goodrich daily total is conservatively estimated at 20,000 and that of the Firestone plant at 28,000. The remainder of the grand total is accounted for by the Miller, General, India, Mohawk, Swinehart and other factories.

Stocks of tires in the hands of dealers and manufacturers have declined, according to the latest available figures, to 5,000,000, a drop of over 1,000,000 casings in the last six months. Demand has shown a steady increase and there probably will be less of a seasonal slump than usual this winter. This is due to the growing popularity of the closed car, which insures that more automobiles will be operated the coming winter than ever before.

Balloon tires have come to stay, rubber men say, and it is repeatedly stated that many factories are taking steps to make them stay longer. That is, these factories are changing the type of their balloon tires from four ply to six ply. This change is not being broadcast as yet. It is estimated that the manufacturers in question now have on hand some 200,000 four ply balloon tires. When these are cleared from inventory it is possible that the newer, heavier type will be introduced with a flourish.

The change would add somewhat to the cost of materials in a balloon tire and would tend to stabilize the price during the remainder of the year.

The most prominent and influential executives in the tire trade express the firm belief that tire prices are not due for a drop. This applies especially to balloons and semi-balloons, which are going on the higher priced cars. Makers do not feel that owners of such cars would be deterred from buying by the maintenance of prices at their present level.

In fact, they add, keeping the prices at their present figure is equivalent to a cut so far as they are concerned, since the cost of materials is rising. Tire fabrics and the cotton used in tire manufacture have given recent evidence of price strength. Rubber is in a stronger position today than in months. The price has advanced from 17½ cents in June to 28½ cents, and many dealers, importers and consumers look forward to 30-cent rubber shortly.

The reason is not far to seek. There is now about 30,000 tons of rubber in the hands of dealers and manufacturers. This is only about a month and a half's supply for the tire industry, which is consuming crude at the rate of some 20,000 tons a month. This stock in storage is a reduction of 25,000 tons as compared with three months ago.

The English market is firm and there will be no change in the amount of crude permitted to be exported under the Stevenson plan from the Straits Settlements until November. The importers in this country sold more rubber in August than in any month this year and the rate at which consumers have bought this month promises that September will beat even this record.

With prices stabilized by these conditions, manufacturers of tires feel that neither dealers nor car buyers will have any incentive to hold off in the hope of bargain sales.

STUDY AIDS NUMEROUS BROKERS

Members of Many Boards In Classes Organized for Educational Work

That the results to be accomplished through the education of the realtors are far reaching in their effect and invaluable to the entire state is already being proven.

In the first place a realtor who has received technical training in his vocation is in a position to conduct a transaction in a business and scientific manner, thereby eliminating the possibility of misunderstanding and future litigation. The realtor who has been schooled in the ethics of the profession as laid down by the local, state and national realty associations is far more capable of adhering to the principles of ethics because he understands the established ethics. Many brokers fail, not because of their desire to infringe upon these ethical laws, but because of their lack of knowledge which results in misunderstanding and frequently litigation.

Sees Improvement

"I was recently informed," said Harrison Lewis, chairman of the State Education Committee of the California Real Estate association, "by the president of one of the large title guaranty companies that already, notwithstanding the fact that our educational program is but in the embryo state, he had noticed a marked improvement in the conducting of real estate transactions by those who were receiving the training through the educational courses."

With the second semester starting this fall there is every indication that more than two-thirds of all of the boards in the state of California will avail themselves of the opportunity of securing technical training for their members and those affiliated with the real estate business in their community.

Both the University of California and the University of Southern California are now making elaborate preparations for the carrying on of this educational work.

HOP HARVESTS LARGE

SEATTLE, Sept. 27.—Western Oregon and Washington hop harvests will be larger than previous official estimates, and of better quality than was expected, because of recent rains. Picking soon will be finished. Prime hops are quoted at 13 to 14 cents a pound. The Oregon crop is estimated at 70,000 bales, or 10 per cent greater than last year.

Huge Sums Come Into Circulation By Bumper Crops

ST. PAUL, Sept. 27.—Millions of dollars already have come into circulation as a result of the marketing of the big 1924 crops in the Northwest, and even conservative Twin Cities business leaders are emphatic in their forecasts of a period of genuine prosperity.

Approximately fifty country banks in the Northwest are expected to re-open as the result of the improved agricultural situation. Bank clearings for the district are above $200,000,000 again, or about 25 per cent over 1923.

A jump of $28,000,000 in St. Paul bank clearings last week is attributed in part to the business attendant on the American Legion convention, but much of the gain resulted from trade originating in rural communities.

DEMAND FOR LUMBER ON INCREASE

All Mills of State Resume Operations; Shipments Southward Heavy

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Conditions in the lumber industry throughout the state have shown considerable improvement during the first three weeks of September, with indications that the winter volume of building will create a demand exceeding that of last fall.

All lumber mills throughout the state have resumed operations, some, however, only on a part time basis. Lumber exporters say shipments to the Orient are practically nil owing to the disorders in China. Constantly growing Mexican shipments, however, have somewhat offset this.

Department stores here report business slightly better than a year ago, with an especially good demand for novelties. Dry goods wholesalers report, that stores are buying in greater volume than at any time within the past year. Purchases by mail orders from surrounding farm counties have increased considerably as crops have gone to market.

BANKS PAY DIVIDENDS

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—Stock dividends averaging 11:4 per cent were paid during the past year by 748 Missouri state banks and trust companies.

ADVERTISING AIDS SALE OF FARMS

Campaign In Middle West States Stir Interest In California

That there is a healthy demand for California farm lands is indicated in reports received from the midwest, where several intensive advertising campaigns are under way to bring to this state many of the farmers now located in the central states. The San Joaquin valley, the Sacramento country and the Imperial valley are the sections of the state getting the greatest publicity from the intensive campaigns being waged from both Chicago and Detroit.

Reports indicate that high prices for farm products mean that this season will see the greatest influx of dirt farmers that California has known for years. Excursions are being run from farming sections in Iowa, Kansas and Illinois and the farmers are being taken directly to the land where they are shown the soil, see the living conditions, and learn the terms on which this rich land can be had.

The result of these excursions has been great, for the farmers returning to their native states have spread by word of mouth the great opportunities that are prevalent in California and in many instances have induced their friends and neighbors to buy adjacent property in California. These excursions have in every instance satisfied the farmer of the middle west that the statements made by the California companies are not exaggerated, and in many cases deals have been consummated on the spot.

Reports from Chicago show that the demand for California farm land is greater than at any time and that the indications are that it will increase as the farmers get their money for this season's crops.

Water Shortage Fails To Halt Lettuce Crop

The fear that the shortage of water might retard or prevent a good yield of the lettuce crop in the Imperial valley this season is not founded in fact, according to Ray Edgar, director of the California Real Estate association, who is the authority for the statement that between two and three thousand more cars of lettuce will be shipped this season than was sent east last year. The tables in New York will have Imperial valley lettuce on their Christmas menu, and the sprouts of the new plants are already showing their heads, says the pioneer realtor of Imperial valley.

Chamber Of Commerce To Have Membership Campaign

Plans for a membership campaign for the Glendale Chamber of Commerce are being worked out by Laurence H. Grady, newly elected membership manager, and following the meeting of the board of directors Tuesday night, it is expected a general plan will be announced and work started at an early date.

The local chamber membership has decreased in the past few months and Howard I. Wood, who came here a short time ago to take over the office of secretary, plans to build up the membership as high as possible.

It is pointed out that at the present time the membership is under that when Glendale had a population of but 27,000.

Because of the fact that eight members of the board of directors will be replaced the first of the year, the actual campaign may not be started until that time.

INCOME TAX RECEIPTS HIGHER

Sound Business Conditions, Greater Earning Power Seen In Revenue

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Income tax collections for the first twenty days in September were over one million dollars greater than the collections for the entire month of September, 1923, it is announced by Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodcell.

The sum of $8,524,111.14, was the amount of income tax receipts from September 1 to September 20, as against $7,454,962.95 for the entire month of September a year ago.

Collector Goodcell explained that the increase of income tax collections, after the 25 per cent reduction under provisions of the new revenue act, reflected sound business conditions and a greater earning power by citizens of Southern California.

C. C. Officials Attend Meeting at Whittier

Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Laurence H. Grady, membership campaign manager, and J. W. Charleville, secretary of the Burbank Chamber, went to Whittier this morning to attend the meeting of the Commercial Secretaries' Association of Southern California at the William Penn hotel. The meeting was scheduled to start with a luncheon at the hotel, followed by discussion of topics along the lines of Chamber of Commerce work.

A. G. Arnoll, manager of the industrial department and assistant secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber, was to talk on the industrial survey, its purpose, how made, and the advisability of cities purchasing land for industrial sites and reselling for industrial purposes. Oscar A. Herman, president of the Ironall Factories, Inc., Ontario, had as his subject the locating of industries in the smaller cities of Southern California. In addition he was to discuss the problems of a manufacturer located in an outside district.

Secretaries were also to enter into the discussion of membership maintenance and the handling of inquiries in order to stimulate Chamber of Commerce support. Commencing at 6 o'clock this evening a dinner dance will be held in the hotel and accommodations have been made for a number of the visiting secretaries to remain in Whittier over night.

Finish Redecoration Of Novel Tea Room

The Harriett Mae Tea room, located at 201 East Harvard street, has just been completely redecorated and, under the capable direction of Miss Harriett Mae Reynolds, its proprietess, takes its place among the most artistic and well appointed refectories in Southern California. Miss Reynolds caters to banquets, dinner parties, and by special arrangement these are made very exclusive.

The large following which the Harriett Mae Tea room enjoys has been built upon service and highest quality of food, the preparation of which is always under the personal supervision of Miss Reynolds, who invokes that charm of southern flavor which so thoroughly satiates the appetite, and individualizes the Harriett Mae Tea room.

The daily dinners and luncheons which this refectory serves are a delight to all who partake of them, and the first customers have always been its best, which is the highest commendation that can be conferred.

Plan Degree Ceremony At Realtors' Meeting

The degree "Realtor" was conferred upon Willard W. White, president of the Oakland Real Estate Board, at a meeting held last Monday and attended by one of the largest gatherings in the history of the board. The ceremonial procedure was the work of Ira Abram and Robert B. Dunlap, S. H. Masters acting as "interrogator." The sketch which expressed the ideals of "Realtordom," and which was enthusiastically applauded by the gathering will be presented at the forthcoming convention of the California realtors at Pasadena.

It has been definitely decided that the famous Oakland Realty Board Glee club will be in 100 per cent attendance at the convention, according to Zura E. Bells, director and leader of the club.

The Oakland realtors' baseball club, champions of the north, will contend with Southern California realtors baseball teams in Pasadena, it was announced. The Fred T. Wood cup is the prize held out to the contestants.

STEADINESS SHOWN BY BUSINESS

Investment Bankers Reach Conclusion Conditions Are Improving

By J. C. ROYLE

Special Correspondent of the Glendale Evening News. Copyright, 1924

CLEVELAND, Sept. 27.—Money rates are not likely to harden to any marked degree during the remainder of the year. Bond prices and markets give indication of a continued steadiness. The agricultural situation is decidedly improved. There is prospect of a steady and healthy revival of business and industry throughout the country. Those are the conclusions which many members of the investment bankers' association have reached after interchanges of views among delegates from all sections lasting for the three days of their convention here.

Arrival at these beliefs by men whose fingers are constantly on the financial pulse of the country is of far more importance to the public as a whole than the settlement of the various technical questions which have been discussed here. This is even true in regard to government financing. C. S. Dewey, assistant secretary of the treasury, left with many bankers the impression the refunding of the government obligations would probably be of the short term character. Some of the bankers were not hesitant about declaring their opinion that the government should utilize this period of low money rates to do its refunding on a long time basis and get it out of the way of investment issues affecting, local financing.

'Estator' Is Word Coined by English Property Agents

It's "realtor" in America. Is it to be "estator" in England?

It will be, if a plan goes through that is now under discussion by the Auctioneers' and Estate Agents' Institute of the United Kingdom.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards, which holds for members of its constituent boards the exclusive right to use the coined word "realtor," has just received a letter from the English institute inquiring as to how the American organization has proceeded in establishing its right. The English body, whose membership is made up of men trained professionally for land appraising, leasehold appraising, property management and other functions performed by the realtor in America, expresses interest in the term adopted to indicate membership in the American association, and is considering the adoption of a similar coined term, "estator," for use only by its members in good standing.

Anaheim Realtors to Hold Industrial Show

Announcement is made by the Anaheim Realty board that plans are being developed for the holding of the first annual industrial conference of the California Real Estate Association at Anaheim on December 6.

President Sidnam of the Anaheim Realty Board is the authority for th estatement that the program originally planned for last spring when the Valencia Orange show was to be held, has been greatly increased in size and that representatives from all over Southern California are pledged to attend the Anaheim meeting to discuss the development of California industrially.

PERISHABLE FOODSTUFF GAINING

California Shipping Three Times as Much Now as Five Years Ago

Figures released by various boards throughout the state of California through the California Real Estate association, discloso a phenomenal gain in the production of perishable food products by the state of California. In the last five years the shipments of foodstuffs from this state have increased from 150,000 cars a year to an annual production in excess of 350,000 cars.

Throughout the farming districts of the state there is a feeling of great optimism, and generally the prices received by the growers this year are higher than last year's prices.

Olive Crop Light

The only crop seriously affected by the water shortage this season is the olive crop and production is only 25 per cent as compared with last year's figures. D. Richard Ainsley, president of the San Joaquin Valley Realty association is the authority for the statement that the olive growers association is considering the advisability of standardizing its park.

Advices from the east indicate that there is a ready market for the lima bean crop of California, and higher prices prevail than in former years.

FOREST FIRE LOSSES

SEATTLE, Sept. 27.—Total loss to privately owned timber and logging equipment in Washington from forest fires will not be more than $750,000 this year, according to Chief Forester Joy, as recent rains have extinguished most of the fires. Logging operations are expected to be resumed in full within the next few weeks.

SHOWS FAITH IN CENTRAL AVENUE

Main Artery to Residential Section Has Big Future, Declares O. M. Newby

Central avenue is destined to become one of the city's principal business streets, in the opinion of O. M. Newby, who has backed up his faith in Central avenue by having erected a two-story building at 109-111 South Central avenue, which represents an investment of $20,000.

"Central avenue is the main artery for the biggest residential district in Glendale," Mr. Newby said, in discussing the future of Central avenue. "My observations, based on over 20 years of activities in Glendale and Los Angeles, show that high-class business always follows the best residential districts, and the best business firms seek locations on the main arteries to such districts. The Kenneth road district is the city's biggest residential district and it is just coming into its own."

Putting in Sewer

Central avenue will be the first thoroughfare in the business section of Glendale to have the sewer installed. Workmen are engaged now in putting in sewer pipe on South Central avenue, and the widening and paving is going forward rapidly.

In the south part of the building a Chaffee store will be opened in a short time. The store space will be 32 feet by 60 feet, and the stock of the present store at 113 North Brand boulevard will be moved to the new location when their present lease expires January 1. In the meantime, a store will be maintained at the South Central avenue location. The Chaffee company has taken a five-year lease on the property, with a privilege of renewing the lease for an additional five years.

Business Associates

Mr. Newby and associates will occupy the north part of the building, the realty office being 15 feet by 60 feet. Associated with Mr. Newby in the realty business are C. N. Coverdale, W. Wallace Plumb, M. A. Stumpf, H. J Kohl and George M. Egbers.

Mr. Newby has been a resident of Glendale for 16 years. Mr. Plumb has lived here five years. Mr. Coverdale came to this city from Indianapolis about a year ago, and Mr. Egbers moved here from St. Louis over a year ago.

SETS RECORD ON NEWBY BUILDING

S. Beran Co. Has Structure Ready Seven Weeks From Time Work Started

Seven weeks after the first load of material was placed on the site, the new building erected at 109-111 South Central avenue by the S. S. Beran Co., 213½ South Brand boulevard, for O. M. Newby, realtor, was ready for occupancy, thus setting a new record in Glendale for construction of such a building.

The structure is two stories in height and has a frontage of 48 feet on Central avenue, with a depth of 60 feet. It is constructed of stone-tile and pressed brick, the front being of pressed brick in cream color, trimmed in red.

Italian Architecture

The style of architecture is Italian and the appearance adds materially to the location. The floor for the dancing auditorium is hardwood, while the balance of the woodwork in the building is stained Oregon pine. On the first floor is the market to be occupied by the Chaffee company, and the office of Mr. Newby.

The second floor of the building has been specially and ideally arranged for Miss Pearl Keller, well known Glendale dancing teacher, for her school of dancing and dramatic art. There is an attractive reception hall, office, personal living quarters, and last, but not least, a delightful, small, but adequate and artistic ball room, commanding wonderful views of the foothills to the north. Everything has been carried out according to Miss Keller's ideas and she and her pupils will find the arrangement to their utmost convenience.

Active in City

Before the completion of the new building, Mr. Newby maintained an office at 107 South Central avenue for two years. He has been interested in the widening and lighting of Central avenue and West Broadway, and has taken an active interest in all civic, church and school matters in Glendale.

He is secretary and treasurer of the Citizens' Bond committee, president of the West Broadway Improvement association, superintendent of the Casa Verdugo Methodist Episcopal church, and was captain of a team in the recent Y. M. C. A. drive.

FOREIGN MISSION FUND SUBSCRIBED

Seventh-day Adventists Give To Work; Services by Elder R. W. Parmele

The last Saturday in each quarter of the year is observed by the Seventh-day Adventist church as the "Thirteenth Sabbath," a day when the needs of foreign mission work are especially remembered. At the church on the corner of Isabel and California streets a suitable program was rendered by the Sabbath school today. The offering for the day was given to the work in Malaysia. It is expected that it will be not far from $1,000, as the offering of the last "Thirteenth Sabbath" amounted to $1043.37.

In the service that followed the Sabbath school, Elder R. W. Parmele, the pastor, preached on "Our Human Intercessors."

"While I cannot for one moment believe in the view of the invocation of saints," Mr. Parmele said, "yet I do believe that there are now saints in heaven, who are given their part in the great mediatorial plan. The scriptures tell us of the translation of Enoch and Elijah, and prove conclusively the special resurrection given to Moses. Then also we read of 'a multitude of the saints which slept,' coming out of their graves at the resurrection of Christ. We cannot believe that they had to retire to their graves again, but on the contrary it is evident that they were taken to heaven with Christ 'when he ascended up on high,' according to the marginal reading of Eph. 4:8, and in a number of other renderings of this text.

Brought Into View

"A scene of a portion of this company was presented to John, as recorded in Rev. 4:4, where they are represented as being near the throne of God, clothed as were the priests of old. This brings to our minds the arrangement of the priesthood as made in the time of David's reign, recorded in 1 Chron. 24:25, where they were divided into twenty-four classes. This company is again brought to view in the fifth chapter, verses 6 to 10, where they announce that they were redeemed from the earth 'out of every nation.' 'And hast made us unto our God kings and priests.' And in verse 8 they are represented as having 'golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of the saints.'

"Thus it is plain that these twenty-four individuals, whoever they were, are representatives of our race, are now in heaven, associated with Christ, as priests, and having something to do with the prayers of the saints.

"By this means God would bind the human race more closely to Himself. He gave His only begotten Son to take upon Him humanity, to bind Himself to the race by a tie that shall never be broken, and 'God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself.' He has never been irreconciled to us, but we got out of line, and became irreconciled to Him. So He gave His Son to become our 'near kinsman' to tie us more closely to Him, and then when that Son returned to His Father's house, He took some of the members of our race with Him, and made them His associates in His service for humanity to make us feel more at home as we kneel before the throne in prayer. What more could be done for us than has been done? 'Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in every time of need.'"

At the close of his discourse, Elder Parmele announced that the theme of his discourse next Sabbath will be "Why Was Job Afflicted?"

Dobinson Players to Open Wednesday Night

The big night of the season will be that of Wednesday, October 1, when the Dobinson Players will open in "A Prince There Was," George M. Cohan's delightful comedy, at the Club Playhouse, Central at Lexington, Glendale. Among the audience who have already signified their intention of being present will be prominent authors, actors, and notables of Los Angeles and surrounding territory. Congratulatory messages have been received by the management expressing satisfaction and appreciation of this movement by which the communities may be privileged to see the human, heart-throbbing plays, and hear the spoken drama depicted by intelligent men and women of the stage in splendid environment at a price that fits the purse of all. This achievement has been made possible in Glendale because of the vision of Florence Dobinson, who will present plays that will appeal to all, asking in return the support of the public.

MONTROSE NOTES

MONTROSE, Sept. 27.—The board of directors' meeting held on Friday night in the office of E. Sullivan of the Bettigan Lumber Co., was unable to conduct any official business as there was not a quorum in attendance. The regular business meeting of the chamber will be held on the first Tuesday of the month in the Montrose schoolhouse.

Turning to park his car to attend the board of directors' meeting, of which he is secretary, W. C. Kaune was run into by a roadster driven by C. M. Parker of Haines Canyon road, Tujunga. The small car was badly damaged while Mr. Kaune had the rear left fender ripped off his large car. No one was hurt. The Parker boy was accompanied by C. Cooper, Los Angeles.

The Automobile Club of Southern California has placed signs limiting the speed of autoists to twenty miles while driving through Montrose. These signs are conspicuously displayed on Honolulu boulevard.

A new hardware store opened its doors today to the public. The Simpson Hardware Co. has located in the Montrose Hotel building.

The Modern Brotherhood of America is organizing a lodge in the La Crescenta valley under the direction of R. L. Strong of Altura avenue, La Crescenta. Mr. Strong will be glad to have members of the order living in the valley communicate with him at his home or address him, R. 1, Box 698, Glendale.

The Verdugo Hills Merchants' association, formed in September, held a business meeting at the Jack o' Lantern inn, where the following officers were elected: Albert E. Sullivan of the Bettingen Lumber Co., Montrose, president; H. N. Fowler of the Fowler Automobile Agency, Verdugo City, first vice president; M. F. Gilwer of the Independent Lumber Co., Tugunga, second vice president; W. Farrand, La Crescenta, secretary and treasurer; board of directors: N. H. Fowler, H. Gilmer, G. W. Farrand, W. F. Fowler of the Montrose grocery, Bruce Anawalt of the Anawalt Lumber Co., Tugunga, E. E. Laughery, La Crescenta hardware, Phil Reihm, Tujunga market; George Wales Farrand was appointed manager of the association, and H. F. Anawalt chairman of the membership committee. The meetings will be held at the Jack o' Lantern Inn every Wednesday at 12:15 p. m., and close promptly at 1:30 p. m. On October 1 Frank Pilling of Glendale will be the first speaker of the number of men who will be present at the meetings from time to time. Four meetings will be held at the Jack o' Lantern Inn, then two in Tujunga and so on through the year.

MONTHLY FORM LETTER

My dear Followers:

The following rules of the column will have to be followed in asking for discussions and for material which we offer. Otherwise your letters cannot be given attention:

First: When you ask for material which we have offered, you must enclose a self-addressed and stamped envelope (s. a. s. e.). The address must include your full name, city or town, state and street number. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must also include ten cents in loose stamps. Do not send money—it is too easily lost in the mails.

Second: Write legibly with pen or typewriter and not more than 200 words. If your handwriting is not clear get someone to write for you.

Third: When you ask for material to be sent, have your s. a. s. e. at least a full-sized envelope. It is very difficult to stuff a whole pamphlet into a baby envelope.

Fourth: Address your letters to me in care of your paper. They will be forwarded to me at my office in New York City.

Fifth: Please sign your name as evidence of good faith. We promise that we shall not use it in any way.

Sixth: Do not ask for material to be sent you unless it is something we have offered to send inquirers. You may, however, ask me to write on any subject of general interest which I have not covered, and I will be glad to do so as soon as possible.

Seventh: Do not ask for diagnoses or for individual treatment. I could not safely give you these even if I had the time. This comes in the province of your personal physician.

Eighth: Allow at least three weeks to elapse before thinking your request for material has gone astray or is ignored. And allow very much longer than that for an answer to appear in the column, if it can appear there.

Ninth: Watch my answers to correspondents and articles each day for something similar to the question you want discussed, and consider yourself answered when you see that, whether your initials are appended or not. Many people ask the same question and I must answer them altogether to save time and space.

Unless all of the first seven rules are complied with your letter cannot receive any attention. I dislike to have to put all of these restrictions on you, but unless you do follow them it is going to be impossible for us to handle our mail.

If you will remember that my "Diet and Health" is a syndicated feature, appearing all over the United States and Canada and in every section of the country creating great interest, you will realize the extent of my mail. I want to be able to read all of your letters. They are an inspiration and a help to me, but I shall not be able to do it unless you follow these rules because of the tremendous number of them.

You may never see your answer under your own initials, for in the column I can answer very few, and I try to choose those letters by the answering of which I can help the largest number. Probably 90 per cent of our letters have to do with the question of reducing, so, naturally, that subject being of the greatest interest—and, incidentally, of the greatest general importance—there will be a great deal on that subject always.

You will find I have to repeat my advice very often. But it is by repetitions that we learn, so that is desirable. I shall prepare many of my articles so that you can get them again by sending the s. a. s. e. and following the other directions. But unless I have written on a subject and have offered to send it to you, it will not be available for distribution.

Please remember that I cannot take the place of your family physician. I cannot make diagnoses for you nor treat you personally, nor write individual diets. I appreciate very much the wonderful confidence you are showing in me, but if you think for a moment you can realize that diagnoses and personal treatment would be impossible. I can only take up in the column questions that will be of general interest to all my readers.

I feel like adding a tenth rule. It is this. Save some of your 200 words to continue telling me how much you enjoy the column and how much help you are getting from it. For that is an inspiration to me and, of course, makes my work happier.

I shall probably have to run this article just as it is once a month, at least, to keep the newcomers in column order and probably remind you, too, though I hope you will help me and hasten my reply to you by remembering to observe our rules.

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible; if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

Glen Eyrie Meets

Elizabeth Wheeler, right worthy grand trustee of the general grand chapter, O. E. S., and other officers of the grand drill team, visited Glen Eyrie chapter last night in the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard. Mrs. Wheeler served as worthy matron, and other officers filled the various stations of the local lodge, for the exemplification of the ritualistic work. Two candidates were initiated.

Following the meeting the company of 200 marched to the banquet hall for refreshments served by officers of Glen Eyrie chapter. A table of honor was arranged for the honored guests, the visiting grand officers, past grand officers, past matrons and matrons of Glen Eyrie chapter.

Compliments were showered on Estelle Brain for the artistic decorations of the tables. Soft pastel shades were chosen by Mrs. Brain for the appointments. Over the honor table hung a huge orange and white crepe paper bell. On the table were eight baskets in pastel shades and holding French bouquets. Favors at the places were cunning dolls, made of carnival horns and crepe paper. At the other tables, each seating eight, were the little doll favors. The lights were shaded with the pastel paper.

Announcement was made during the evening of a card party Saturday night, October 4, at the Masonic temple, for members and friends of Glen Eyrie chapter.

CHAPTER LXIII

"I wasn't dressed, Miss Collier," Emma answered, civilly. "I heard her rushing round and I come in, and she says 'Emma, you might jest as well go back to bed, I sha'n't need you!" But after she left, I thought I might as well wait for her."

"Was it Fifty-ninth Street, Emma?"

"I couldn't say, Miss Collier!"

"This is important," Hilary said, sternly. "Mr. Spaulding has just telephoned; he will be here in a few minutes. I must find Mrs. Spaulding——"

Emma's face paled; her eyes took on a look of fright.

"Mr. Spaulding!" she whispered.

"Exactly! And whatever Mrs. Spaulding's business is, I am sorry she went tonight," Hilary answered, briskly, regaining a certain casual air for Dora's protection. "Mr. Kronski is giving a party, and he goes away early tomorrow! Mrs. Spaulding probably wanted to join them for a few moments—but in any case I think I will follow her. What was the address?"

"It was somp'n Fifty-ninth Street," Emma admitted. She flew for Miss Collier's fur coat, ran downstairs beside Hilary to the door.

"Tell Mr. Spaulding that we are at Mr. Kronski's party, and that we will be back at once!" Hilary instructed Banks. She nervously refused to let him accompany her. "No, no, I can run to the Avenue, and get a bus if there isn't a cab," she assured him, "only—wait a moment! Did you tell Mrs. Rodney Spaulding that Mr. Craig was coming back?"

"No, Miss, I didn't rouse her!"

"Well, don't. I think we'll be back in twenty minutes. It's five minutes to twelve——"

She ran out into the darkness. Down the stone steps, about the corner——

She had only gotten so far when a taxi drew up at the Spaulding door. Hilary turned, ran back a few steps.

"Dora!" she exclaimed, thankfully. But a second later she shrank back against the wall; it was not Dora, but Craig, who jumped out, and stood paying the driver, his pleasant voice echoing in the silent street. Had he seen her? She fancied that he glanced more than once at the shadow in which she was hiding, and up at the door of the house behind him, as if something puzzled him. "God help us all!" she whispered, when he ran up the steps. It was the taxi he had just left into which she climbed a moment later.

To her frenzy of anxiety the machine seemed hardly to move. They bumped into the Avenue, bumped through the endless Forties, Fifty-third—Fifty-seventh.

"Here—this is it!" she cried, feverishly, out of the cab almost before it had stopped, and cramming a bill into the man's ice-crusted glove. Through the halls—up the big odorous stairs—her breath hurt her side, and her mouth was dry, she was praying as she ran. She reached the studio door, opened it, and walked in.

The immense room was but dimly lighted; there was only a dying fire. Near the only lamp Konrad was standing, in his dressing gown, and before him, her hands upon his arms, her bare head thrown back, was Dora.

She turned, Konrad turned at the sound of the clicking lock. Hilary closed the door behind her without removing her eyes from them, and came toward them.

"Butterfly, Craig has come home!" Hilary cried, trying to pierce the strange apathy that held Dora, who stood like a woman of ice.

"What if he has?" she asked, scornfully. "He must know now or later!"

"Come with me, Dora," Hilary pleaded, trembling. "Come home, now. We can talk about this tomorrow!"

"Very well," Dora responded, lifelessly. "You followed me up—I knew you would. I don't believe Craig's there; not that it matters. But it is as I told you, Konrad. Hilary doesn't approve of me any more, she doesn't love me. And I am never to see you alone again. She is better than I am, she is wiser and older—we all know that! Why shouldn't you like her better? Why shouldn't you forget," Dora persisted, recklessly, forcing herself on although her voice was breaking, "that I was just one of the hundreds of women, last spring, who were crazy about the celebrity! That's what she said. I suppose what she feels is something different! I told her it meant my life—I told her of the happiness, the lunches and talks you and I had in the spring. She doesn't care. No, because she is in love now, she is your secretary and your stepmother——"

"But let me understand! One moment——" Konrad said, in bewilderedly, looking from one to another. "You love, yes, Hilary. But it is not—my child, it could not be me?"

Hilary still panting, still wrapped in her heavy soft furs, looked at him honestly for a long moment of silence. There was something of noble humility in her proudly held crown of braids and curve of her beautiful throat.

"I am afraid so, Konrad," she said, simply, at last.

Again there was an absolute silence in the studio. Far down in the dark street outside boys were calling an extra. But here the hush was so profound that the soft crash of a log, breaking into pink-and-gray ashes, could be distinctly heard.

Dora, who had turned at Hilary's entrance so that she and Konrad were alike facing her sister, had kept one hand upon the man's arm. Now she said, in a whisper:

"Konrad?"

Konrad moved his gaze from Hilary, looked at Butterfly; at her soft brown eyes and trembling young mouth, at the little black figure touched with lamplight in an aureole of bright hair.

"Konrad," she faltered, "I have told her. Will you also tell her that we are more than close friends?"

Konrad stood staring at one and then the other. His dark, colorless face wore an almost stern expression.

"You care for me?" he asked Hilary again. "Butterfly, yes, she is my friend, of course. I send her flowers, a book, we lunch together! But you?"

"I did not come to tell you so tonight, Konrad," Hilary said, bravely. "But it is true! I know, I know—" she added, talking against the sensation of being in an evil dream—"that you like us both——"

"But that will not do now!" Butterfly added, eagerly, as Hilary paused.

"No," Konrad agreed, slowly, looking from one to the other. "That will not do—now."

There was an interruption; both girls turned pale, and Konrad held up his hand, listening, and silencing them. Feet were running up the stairway; Konrad had time to get to the door when it was flung open.

"Craig!" Hilary whispered, sharply. Dora, ashen with fright, stood her ground bravely.

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS

"Saintly Sinners" will be presented tonight for the last time at the tent theatre of Mahurin's Players (Murphy's Comedians), and "Bought and Paid For," that famous drama, known the world over, will open Sunday night, announces J. A. Menard, manager.

Because the seating capacity of the tent is limited and thousands are endeavoring to see this old favorite, Mr. Menard urges Glendalians to purchase their tickets in advance at J. J. Schulte's drug store, 251 North Brand boulevard. The curtain rises at 8:15 o'clock.

The tent theatre where Horace Murphy and his troupe entertain 2000 people a night is located at the corner of Central avenue and Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, where it will remain until October 1, following which another move will be made, Mr. Menard states, while their permanent $250,000 theatre is being constructed on the present location.

THE GATEWAY

Mental telepathy in triumph over human failure in saving a man from taking his own life in a suicide pact furnishes a gripping climax to the picturization of Robert W. Chambers' novel, "Between Friends," which will be shown at the Gateway Theater on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This intensely interesting story as filmed for Vitagraph under the personal supervision of J. Stuart Blackton, is a depiction of a segment of life wherein the social and artistic life of New York co-mingle, and, like most of Chambers' brain children, teems with suspense, tells a convincing story and works to a climax which keeps the audience guessing right up to the final scene.

Lou Tellegen, Norman Kerry, Stuart Holmes, Alice Calhoun and Anna Q. Nilsson are the leading players in the remarkable cast assembled by Vitagraph for this production.

THE GLENDALE

Dustin Farnum in "The Man Who Won" concludes today at the Glendale Theatre. Sunday to Wednesday inclusive the feature is Tom Mix in "Ladies to Board."

THE T. D. & L.

Rodolph Valentino in "Monsieur Beaucaire" concludes today at the T. D. & L. Sunday to Tuesday inclusive the feature is D. W. Griffith's "America," from the popular pen of Robert W. Chambers.

Following a number of serious accidents to hunters, the national hunt committee of England has made the wearing of crash helmets compulsory for jockeys in steeplechase events.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE SNAPDRAGONS

"Where are you going so early this morning, Nurse Jane?" asked Uncle Wiggily of the muskrat lady housekeeper. Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy had started to open the back door, and in one paw she carried a pail.

"I am going into the garden, if you please, Mr. Longears," answered Nurse Jane with a low and polite bow.

"What for?" asked the rabbit gentleman, twinkling his pink nose, which he always did just after breakfast.

"I am going to water the Snap Dragons," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"What's that? Snap Dragons in my garden! Oh, dear! Where can I hide? What can I do to stop the Snap Dragons from nibbling my ears?" cried the bunny, and he began looking around for a dark closet into which he might crawl.

"Don't be silly!" laughed Nurse Jane.

"Silly?" gasped Uncle Wiggily. "Silly? Is it silly to be afraid of Snap Dragons? I've read of Dragons—how they breathe out fire and smoke and carry you away on their long tails! Oh, to think that Snap Dragons should be in my garden! Oh, dear! Oh, dear."

Long and loud laughed Nurse Jane.

"Ha! Ha!" she cried. "The Snap Dragons in your garden, Uncle Wiggily, are only pretty flowers. They are called Dragons because they open when you pinch them, and when they are open they look like the mouth of a Dragon. But they are only pretty flowers."

"Flowers—Snap Dragon flowers!" murmured the bunny.

"Come and see me water them," invited Nurse Jane.

So Uncle Wiggily hopped into the garden with his muskrat lady housekeeper, and there he saw rows of red, purple, yellow and white flowers. If you have ever seen growing in the fields, yellow blossoms called "toad flax," or sometimes "butter and eggs," then you may know what Snap Dragons look like. For both flowers are much alike.

"See the Dragons open their mouths!" laughed Nurse Jane, and, gently pinching one Snap Dragon blossom she made it open, just like a mouth. Then Uncle Wiggily laughed, and was no longer afraid of the flowering Snap Dragons in his garden.

"I think I shall go to sleep near them, I like them so," he said. "And when I awaken I shall look for an adventure."

So the bunny rabbit went to sleep in the garden near the bed of Snap Dragon flowers. And, while Uncle Wiggily slept, along came the bad old Fuzzy Fox.

"Oh, ho!" whispered the Fox to himself as he saw the sleeping rabbit. "Now I shall have some fine ear nibbles."

He was creeping toward Uncle Wiggily, creeping, creeping, creeping so softly, so softly, but all of a sudden the bunny awakened. He saw the fox. There was no time to spring up and run away. But Uncle Wiggily played a trick.

"Snap Dragons! Snap Dragons!" cried the rabbit gentleman. "Oh, my Snap Dragons, bite this bad Fox and drive him away!"

The wind blew on the Snap Dragon flowers, and they opened their mouths very wide—the red, purple, white and yellow blossoms. And the Fox, seeing all the open mouths, but not knowing the Snap Dragons were only flowers, became much frightened.

"Oh, don't let the Snap Dragons bite me," howled the Fox. "I'll be good! I'll run away!" And away he ran, taking his tail with him, and so he didn't nibble Mr. Longears that day.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny as he danced in glee. "I'm glad I have Snap Dragons in my garden!" And the bunny gave them another drink of water, which the blossoms liked very much. And, now, if the five cent rubber ball will give the gum drop a bounce or two before supper, I shall tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the candy kettle.

SEES JAPAN HINT IN LEAGUE ACTION

U. S. Officials of Belief Immigration Problem Not Yet Closed

considers that its immigration policy is one that concerns the United States and no one else; it is a matter of purely domestic concern, and it would no more allow the League of Nations to arbitrate a dispute arising under this internal law than it would allow the league to mix into any other matter of domestic policy.

Japan Officials Clash Over Policy In China

TOKIO, Sept. 27.—Foreign Minister Shidehara and War Minister Ugaki are reported to have clashed in yesterday's cabinet meeting over Japan's policy in China.

War Minister Ugaki is reported to have favored intervention in behalf of Chang Tso Lin, Manchurian war lord, while Shildehara is anxious to maintain neutrality.

The foreign office today intimated that anxiety was held concerning the South Manchurian railway and Japanese nationals, should Chang be defeated and his soldiers become bandits.

Answer Is Delayed

It was indicated that the demand of Wu Pei for use of the railway for troop transportation would not be immediately answered.

Upon receipt of the text in full it will be discussed by the cabinet, it was said, before a final decision is reached.

The commission's rejection of the Adachi amendment has made Japan's acceptance difficult, it was admitted, by the same source, who maintained, however, that Japan agrees to the principle of arbitration.

British and Italian Delegates Accept Offer

GENEVA, Sept. 27.—British and Italian delegations to the League of Nations today accepted the compromise suggestion of Louis Loucher of France, that Japan's amendment be attached to Article V of the arbitration protocol.

This concession to Japan was made after Japan refused, yesterday, to accept the arbitration protocol. The Japanese amendment stipulates that the new arbitration provisions leave unaffected the functions of the League of Nations council for promoting international peace. In other words, it pits the power of the council against that of the world court.

SMALLEST FERRY HIT BY PROGRESS

Age of Advancement Forces Owner to Quit; to Sell Real Estate Now

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The smallest and one of the best-paying private monopolies in the United States, if not in the world, in all probability will pass out of existence with the end of the summer. Then the ferry connecting Sheepshead Bay with Plumb Beach, the world's smallest ferry, operated by Bernard Naslund, better known as "Barney" to the residents of New Flatbush, Sheepshead Bay and Plumb Beach, will suspend operations. Borough President Riegelmann of Brooklyn plans to extend Emmons avenue across the shallow channel to Plumb Beach as a part of a great marine park improvement.

"Barney" is as odd a character as his ferry is unique and profitable. A little, wiry, weatherbeaten man, with a complexion the color of dull copper, his face seamed from many years of exposure to all sorts of weather. Mr. Naslund is on the verge of retiring from the arduous duites of ferryman.

"Barney" already has started another enterprise, for he has entered the real estate business as a resident agent for a syndicate which is spending approximately $200,000 to bulkhead the waterfront along Plumb Beach channel.

Liquor Smuggling In Norway Still Active

CHRISTIANA, Sept. 27.—Smuggling, particularly liquor smuggling, is still rife in Norway.

It is reported the smugglers are even using submarines to run their contraband.

A prominent Norwegian lawyer says smugglers insure their goods against capture by paying a premium of 6 per cent. The insurances, he states, were at first underwritten by an English firm, but now by a Hamburg company.

BILLIARD TABLES

Cover a billiard table in a bright red cloth instead of the customary soft green and every billiard hall would be deserted in half an hour. Billiard tables from the beginning were covered with green for the same reason that nature covers her open stretches usually with green, because it is a color that is soothing to the eye and therefore restful. Red is inflammatory.

Small holes in a boiler can be stopped by fitting a stove bolt.

Duke And Wife At War

VIOLET, DUCHESS OF WESTMINSTER, who won an injunction to prevent her husband, shown in the inset, from ejecting her from Bourdon House in London. She spared herself from seeing whether her husband's threat would be made good.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Fashionable Mayfair is anxiously awaiting the next round in the legal skirmishings of the Duke of Westminster and his latest wife, the former Mrs. Violet Rowlep. While she was on her way to the United States, her attorneys won an injunction preventing the duke's servants from ejecting her or her servants from political Bourdon House in London. Just what the duke will do now is uncertain for he is cruising in the Mediterranean in his $5,000,000 yacht.

The duchess' attorneys sought the injunction when servants at Bourdon house were told the duchess would be turned out into the street if she attempted to go there. She had spared herself this indignity by not going, but she had a maid in occupation at the house in charge of her dresses and other belongings, and the maid was put out.

KNICKERS CAUSE ROW IN ATLANTA

Women's Raiment Leads to Verbal Battle Pro and Con In Society

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 27.—The war against women's knickers has reached Atlanta.

It all was precipitated by two wives who filed petitions for divorce because of this much-discussed piece of raiment. One wanted her freedom because her hubby became rather rough after she donned knickers, the other because her husband used violence when she refused to wear them and hike around the world with him.

While the elite of Atlanta worried little about the court's official decisions to be handed down in these cases, members of this circle did have considerable to say about "women's rights" and their "freedom."

Let them wear knickers," said Mrs. Perry Adair, southern social leader. "They lead to a more natural life for women and girls."

"I believe in skirts for women," declared Mrs. Norman Sharp, president of the Atlanta Woman's club. "Trousers for women are unbecoming and unsuitable.

"They are all right in their place," said Principal Llewellyn Scott, of the Washington Seminary. "They should not be worn on the streets. Too many girls wear trousers generally and with the full intention of attracting attention."

REJECT OFFER TO FIX NOTRE DAME

French Frown on Plans to Finish High Towers on Noted Cathedral

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Should the towers of Notre Dame be completed? This is the question that is bothering a great many Frenchmen since an American "richissime" recently offered the necessary money to finish the famous towers of the Paris cathedral.

Many were the people who were entirely unaware of the fact that the historical monument was left unfinished. In verity, the two great towers lack their spires, which, according to primitive plans, should rise to a height of 128 meters. Now they measure but 68. Why the towers were not completed still remains a question. Paul Henze, writing in Candide, thinks it was due to lack of money or disagreement in the plans. Others, like Camille Eulart and Maurice Denis, are convinced that the masters of the thirteenth century stopped their work purposely at the third platform of the towers.

However, in 1855, when Viollet-le-Duc finished the restoration of the cathedral, together with Lassus, adding the delicate spire of the transept, he found at the summit of the two actual towers the stones awaiting the spires that were to have been added. His plan that was to make them 128 meters high has never been carried out.

Woodill, who states that 100 acres in the Nuevo district already are planted to the salad vegetable. However, it has been necessary to plant red, white and blue rags in the fields to scare off too numerous birds.

COUNCIL DENIES MURPHY PERMIT

Calls Special Meeting to Again Consider Show; Vote Results 2-2

dale are for Murphy's Comedians?"

Hiss Councilman

"I am working for the best interests of Glendale," declared Councilman Hall. He was loudly hissed.

"You can't build a city with tents," said Mayor Robinson. "The Indians tried it and failed. Murphy's can't come here and run a tent show in opposition to brick theatres."

"We have three substantial theatres in this city, asserted Councilman Davis, "a fourth is now building and on Thursday we granted a permit for the erection of a fifth."

"If a man wants to sit under a tent and spend 33 cents and enjoy himself, there isn't a man in this city who has a right to question him, and there is nothing in the existing ordinance to ban this show," cried Councilman Davis, leaping to his feet.

Crowd Applauds

"If I were these people I would go down there and put up the tent, and if arrested, go to court and demand a jury trial. There wouldn't be anything to it." He was greeted by loud applause.

A telegram was sent to J. B. Menard in San Diego by W. H. Lee of J. B. Brown & Co., following the meeting, advising him of the action taken by the council. Mr. Menard is in that city on a deal that may remove Murphy's Comedians there until the Casa Verdugo theatre is completed.

The following statement was issued by J. B. Brown & Co.:

"Naturally we are distressed at the continued persecution of the happiest and the finest mirth provoking group of comedians that ever came to Glendale. We really feel that the injustice and unkindness is due to misunderstanding otherwise we cannot see for one moment how the mayor and the one supporting councilman in today's session could have maintained their attitude. There is absolutely nothing in the ordinance on which they could refuse the permit for the tent show in the industrial district. I repeat absolutely nothing. We are hastening our plans to build the new theatre but the continued performance of the comedians was a very important part of the financing plans, but we are perpectly satisfied that this last act of persecution will result in such wholehearted support from the patrons of the Murphy show through the purchase of advance reserve seat tickets that we shall be able to finish the new theatre on record time and bring the comedians back at an early date to continue their side splitting comedies."

John R. White Joins 'Hole-In-One' Club

John Robert White of 347 North Orange street has joined the ranks of the immortals. Aside from being former state assemblyman, president of the Glendale Republican club and prominent member of the Flintridge Country club, John Robert White now has his name enrolled in the "Hole-in-One" club.

Mr. White, while playing in a "family foursome" with his three sons, Kenneth, Douglas and Robert, on the Flintridge course, teed off at the twelfth hole and made the 130-yard drive and holed his tee shot. Although the feat was accomplished Thursday, the famous White modesty has kept the fact a secret until today.

Dynamiters Hold U.S.C. Frosh 7-0 First Half

The Glendale High School football players succeeded in holding the U. S. C. Frosh team to a score of 7 to 0 for the first half in the curtain raiser played this afternoon at the Coliseum in Los Angeles, according to word sent Glendale at the end of the first half. The Young Trojan's score came in the first quarter after the ball had passed back and forth considerable. In the second quarter the Dynamiters held the Trojan Babes scoreless, but were unable to cross the goal line for a touchdown, although they threatened the Trojan line on several occasions.

Quarantine Texas Herds Hit by Hoof Disease

HOUSTON, Texas, Sept. 27.—In a new epidemic of the dreaded hoof and mouth disease among Texas herds, a quarantine was placed today in Harris county which prohibits even the movement of vehicular traffic. Other adjoining counties may be placed in quarantine later today in order to prevent the spread of the disease. Louisiana and Oklahoma state sanitary officials have taken steps to stop the movement of livestock from this state.

FEAR TONG WAR

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—A Chinese tong war was feared here today, following the shooting and hacking with a meat axe of Lee Chong, a laundry worker. Wung Lung Sing was held for the attack on his fellow countryman.

A wild pitch by Bush by seventh cost the Yankees the game. In this inning, Dykes walked and Galloway sacrificed. Then Bush let go a wild one and Dykes scored.

Twenty-five thousand fans saw the game.

Here Is Play by Play Of Senators and Red Sox

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Bucky Harris selected George Mogridge to go to the hill this afternoon against the Red Sox and try to clinch one of the few games necessary for the Senators to win the American league pennant. Mogridge was opposed by Howard Ehmke.

Ehmke threw away his own game in the sixth when he let go a wild heave to right field trying to catch Harris, who had bunted. Liebold, who had walked, scored, and Harris went to third, tallying a moment later on Goslin's single. Buck Harris used four pitchers, Mogridge, Marberry, Russell and Zachary. He Proposes 260 Times

Here's the champion suitor. He's WILLIAM RICHTER, and with him is his wife. He won her after he had proposed 260 times. He obtained the marriage license back in 1919, thinking it would be easy to get a "Yes." He got it after 259 "Noes."

CHICAGO, Sept. 27. — The champion suitor on record is William Richter, Chicagoan. Richter is now honeymooning with Miss Dorothy Herringshaw after a courtship which proves again that fact surpasses fiction. He proposed to his wife at least 260 times—she lost all count—before he succeeded in dragging a reluctant "yes" from her lips.

In July, 1919, Richter obtained the marriage license, thinking that it would be easy to get Dorothy's consent. He proposed one or more times a week from then on until the other day, when he finally dragged her, a Leap Year bride, to the altar. Mrs. Richter explains that her hesitancy wasn't due to any aversion to Richter, but her desire to remain unmarried.

Start Dry Drive on Nevada Frontier Camp

ELKO, Nev., Sept. 27.—Swooping down upon Nevada's newest frontier camp, Contact, and one of its oldest, Jarbridge, a flying prohibition squad for the first time made the eighteenth amendment felt in either of the two places. Contact has been wide open ever since its start two years ago. There six arrests were made and much evidence confiscated.

At Jarbridge the dry squadron crept up on the town from both ends and staged a sensational raid on the William Currey place. While searching the dance hall and bar, Currey, according to the officers, made a bolt for the door and fled in an automobile. The officers took up the pursuit up a narrow mountain road, forcing him to stop by a hail of bullets.

Ten places have been raided to date and many owners of stills were reported in flight across the Idaho line. One still was found in full operation near a schoolhouse and another was said to have been operating next door to the fire department.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, Sept. 27.—The valley residents are looking forward with interest to the promised visit from the committee on high school locations in the valley. This committee of Glendale men will look the ground over thoroughly getting options on desired locations and estimates on buildings as it is felt in view of the growing population the sites should contain from 10 to 15 acres. The high school bond election, which will not be called in Glendale until after the Glendale municipal bond election, provides for the purchase of a suitable site in the La Crescenta valley to be used later for a high school or junior high school. The Glendale committee will work in conjunction with a committee from the local grammar school.

The Los Angeles Avenue school showed a gain of ten pupils this week over the enrollment of the opening week.

Frank Romo, well-known realtor and subdivider, has purchased the property known as the Moore estate on the north side of Michigan avenue from Boston to Summit streets, consisting of 40 acres at a consideration of more than $80,000.

The grocery store at Piedmont and Los Angeles avenue is again in operation, the new proprietors being Mr. and Mrs. Garver, formerly of Ventura. Mr. Garver has stocked the shop with a complete line of the best groceries on the market and promises the best of service. The store was formerly operated by Ewer & Snyder.

Until the Verdugo city hall is finished the Verdugo Hills Odd Fellows' lodge will hold their meetings in the Sears Barber shop on the corner of Piedmont and Los Angeles avenues.

At the Thursday night meeting, District Deputy Carl Wilde was present. Every Odd Fellow in the valley is invited to attend the meetings and affiliate with the local order.

The following men have returned to their homes after a strenuous time fighting fire in the San Gabriel canyon: Herbert Scheuner, Harlan Durand, M. D. Kemper, Dan Hendrix, P. A. Nightingale, E. B. Young, C. E. Davidson, C. M. Young, A. Pugh, Manuel Lopez, E. Otley, Joe Enright, Arthur Aiken and J. Wetlty. The county, government and state officials are loud in their praises of the splendid work done by the local fire fighters who backfired and fought the fire from the Big Tujunga end of the line, thus saving the valley watershed which was endangered by the nearness of the flames. The men were headed by C. P. Waste and Harvey Bissell, of Hi Up ranch, who transported the men to the scene of action in cars. Thanks are also given Mrs. Harvey Bissell for the food which she put in the lunch kits. Practically all of the men joined the Angeles Forest Protection association, of which Mr. Waste is the organizer for La Crescenta valley. The following officers were elected at the encampment at West Fork Rangers' station: Arthur Aiken, captain; E. B. Young, lieutenant, and Herbert Schuener, secretary. All of the local fire eaters were delegated as crew leaders on reaching the fire zone.

"Cuddle Doon," the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thomas, was the scene of a delightful tea given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Thomas for the members of the Guild of St. Luke of the Mountains for the purpose of preparing articles for the coming bazaar which will be given on October 18 in the basement of the new church on the corner of Rosemont and Michigan avenue.

There will be booths where the following articles will be found on sale, cooked foods in charge of Mrs. Collins; jams and jellies, Mrs. Cleeves; bags of all sorts, Mrs. R. Wildhack and Mrs. Minford; aprons, Mrs. W. Walker; bulbs, seeds and plants of all descriptions, Mrs. E. Socles; ice cream, Mrs. E. Wattel; books, Mrs. A. C. Rowsey; kitchen utensils, Mrs. A. Kantell; candy, Miss Gertrude Scoles; coffee, tea and refreshment booth, Mrs. E. Brooks; fortune telling booth, Mrs. Mary B. Darrow, where a gypsy will provide thrilling fortunes for the future. Mrs. Thomas was assisted in serving by Mrs. R. Wildhack, Miss Drennan and Mrs. E. Socles. A number of beautiful articles were made during the afternoon for the bazaar.

PAPAL UKASE ON DRESS ENFORCED

Scantily Clad Women Banned From Attendance at Italian Churches

ROME, Sept. 27.—Ecclesiastical authorities throughout Italy are rigidly enforcing the pope's decree against the attendance in churches of scantily clad women.

Many churches have notices at their doors pointing out admission is forbidden to women thus dressed, and preachers are warning their congregations that henceforth women wearing very low-necked and sleeveless dresses will not be allowed to partake of Holy communion, or be admitted to the confessional.

Obliged to Leave

It is on record that women have been obliged to leave church on appearing in the forbidden dress, and some have even been publicly admonished.

Although many protests have been made, the pope is very firm in his decision to enforce more austere fashions. He has established a rigorous etiquette for those asking audiences of him, and no woman is even admitted to the precincts of the vatican if garbed in the forbidden clothes.

The order has severely depleted many church congregations, the women apparently preferring to give up going to church rather than be out of fashion.

Heron Carries Dog Aloft by Its Tail

ONECO, Conn., Sept. 27.—Mill workers here have been watching a great blue heron which for several August days fed in Oneco pond as the drought lowered the waters. The bird's arrival at the sound of the morning mill whistle was timed, it seemed, with the mill workers, and the bird paid no attention to efforts to frightening it away. The climax of the bird's visit came when it seized by the tail and lifted a small dog swimming in the pond. The weight caused the bird to drop the yelping dog back into the pond, from which it scrambled and fled down a dusty road, still crying loud. The bird flapped on out of sight and did not return.

ANGELS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

Take Fourth Straight Tilt From Beavers; Now In First Division

By THREE STRIKES
For Southland News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—The Angels, continuing their winning streak on the home diamond, made it four in a row over the Portland Beavers in a slow and loosely contested battle here yesterday which ended 8 to 4. In contrast to the previous day's thirteen inning thriller, yesterday's tilt was a pitifully slow and stupid affair. Both clubs suffered the malady of being tied to the ground during most of the contest.

Tom Hughes, veteran right hander, started for the Krugmen and though erratic in his twirling, allowing the Beavers their four tallies in his six innings, was credited with the victory. Twombly batted for Hughes in the sixth, Buck Ramsay finishing on the mound for the Seraphs. Buck held the visitors hitless during his two innings. Yarrison, on the mound for Portland, lasted but two and a half frames after getting a bit wild and allowing five runs in his brief spell on the hilltop. Keefe finished for the Beavers.

Seraphs Take Lead

Marty Krug's squad took an early lead, counting two each in the first and second. The Ducks threatened in the third by gathering four safeties and putting across three scores.

Frank Brazil, pilot of the Beavers, prolonged the agony in the final by leisurely strolling across the field to the clubhouse when ordered from the game by Umpire Guthrie for disputing a decision.

Winning 5 to 2, the sassy Seals evened up its series with Seattle yesterday with Steuland and Fussell wobbling on the mound for the Indians. Griffin pitched good enough for a victory.

Walter Mails, by batting rather than pitchinfi won for the Acorns at Sacramento, Oakland making 7 runs to the Solons' 5.

Sheehan's home run, among other things, caused the Vernon Tigers to be stung by the Salt Lake Bees 3 to 1 with Kallio and Penner going the route.

Southern Branch Hits Streak of Bad Luck

By BILL BARNETT
Written for The Evening News

Coach Jimmy Cline is having some tough breaks at the University of California southern branch campus, for his Grizzly pigskin machine is pretty well shot to pieces by early season injuries, Captain "Cece" Hollingsworth, one of the best guards in the conference, is out for at least six weeks, while Peak, one of Jimmie's few kickers, is having trouble with his feet. Muggler, half on last year's freshman squad, has injured his shoulder and will be out for the rest if the season. Several of the other aspirants are nursing the usual early season sprains, strains and "charley horses," which will probably be ironed out in a few weeks, however.

The varsity has been pruned down to thirty men, and will eventually be cut to twenty-five. Though the present favored candidates do not carry around too much beef, the boys have been displaying more fight and ginger than has been seen on the Grizzly campus for a long time. Speed will be the keynote of this year's Grizzly outfit, and Cline and Van Sant have been drilling the boys on long end runs and the forward passing game, which will play a large part in the Grizzly offense this year.

Some of the early season prospects who have been showing up well are Jackson, McDougal, Jarvis, Williams, Brees and Blackmer, all members of last year's championship frosh outfit. Jackson and McDougal are working for places in the backfield, as is Blackmer. From present indications Blackmer will start in the game against the freshmen, as he is shifty, and once loose is hard to stop.

Line Coach Toney is having his troubles building a forward wall that will withstand considerable pounding. Hastings is a fixture at center, and Gardner, Collins, Jarvis and Williams have been used in the guard and tackle positions in practice. Bishop and Breesee are two of the best ends the branch has ever had, and with Brees, from the freshmen, ready to step in any time the Grizzlies are well fortified at the extremes.

If Cline, Toney and Van Sant could get hold of a dependable kicker, their worries would diminish considerably. Peak and McDougal have been doing the booting, but are not consistent, besides Peak is troubled with his feet, and it will be a few weeks before he can start practising.

If Cline can develop a kicker, then the Grizzlies will be able to put up a fight with any team in the conference, but at present things look pretty dark for the hustling coach.

Herb Pennock hurled the still-fighting Yanks to within a game of first place by mastering Connie Mack's men, 7 to 1, in Philadelphia. The victory was costly, however, for Jumping Joe Dugan's trick knee went out of kelter again.

Baseball Career Long

JOHN J. M'GRAW, leader of the New York Giants, and known throughout the baseball world as "Little Napoleon," started playing professional baseball on August 21, 1891, when he played second base for the Baltimore Orioles against Columbus, and he has been in the game ever since.

JOHN J. McGRAW
McGRAW HAS BEEN IN THE CELLAR ONLY ONCE AS A GIANT MANAGER

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Written for The Evening News

On August 26, 1891, John J. McGraw, then a lithe, ambitious youth, played his first baseball game in fast company, little knowing that Fate (if you are a Fatalist) had mapped out a career in baseball that would mark him as one of the greatest figures in the game's history. He had seen but one year of professional baseball at that time.

That day of McGraw's real debut he played second base for the Baltimore Orioles against Columbus. The contest was staged at Baltimore. The Orioles won the game, 6 to 5. McGraw was credited with four trips to the plate. He poked out one hit and scored a run. He also sacrificed once.

Among the men who took the field with the Orioles that day was Wilbert Robinson destined to become manager of the Brooklyn National League club, and one of the most beloved men in the game's history.

Career's High Spots

Here are some other high spots in McGraw's career.

Started playing pro ball with home town team of Truxton, N. Y., in 1890.

Went to Cedar Rapids, in the Illinois-Iowa league.

First contract with the Orioles called for annual salary of $1,200. Before McGraw assumed financial control of the Giants his salary was $50,000 a year.

Sold to St. Louis

When Baltimore was dropped from National league, in 1900, McGraw was sold with Robinson to St. Louis for $20,000. McGraw has since bought untried rookies for $100,000.

In 1901 he, Robinson and Kelly placed American league team in Baltimore, McGraw managing it.

Rows with Ban Johnson caused him to quit the American circuit in 1902, and accept management of the Giants.

Has wound up in cellar but once in the 21 years he has bossed the team.

Fighting Spirit

Has finished in second division but once.

Only twice has he finished below the one-two-three line.

McGraw has many marked characteristics. First must be placed his fighting disposition.

McGraw through all his days as a player, was known as a fighter. He did not lose that fighting spirit when he took to the side lines. His temper has drawn him much trouble and some notoriety at times.

He demands absolute obedience to every command on the ball field. It has been said that he "thinks" for all his players. It is known that the men look to McGraw in emergencies. This "master minding" has earned him the title of "The Little Napoleon."

Outbid Opponents

He is short of stature but now much more rotund than the man who failed to look where he was riding at Waterloo.

McGraw has been accused repeatedly of "buying" his pennants. This much must be said. He has always had the financial backing to enable him to go in the open market and outbid the opposition for players he wanted. He is a fearless trader, and willing to gamble on any player he wants.

From most of the men who have played under him comes the word that he is fair and on the "up and up" with them, although he is a hard taskmaster.

M'Tigue, Berlenbach Sign for 15-Round Go

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Champion Mike McTigue and Paul Berlenbach, "knockout king," have signed to meet at Madison Square garden October 24 in a fifteen-round battle for the world's light heavyweight championship, Promoter Tex Rickard announced today.

Farren and Wilder to Battle at Wilmington

Frankie Farren, of Los Angeles, has been tearing up and down the west coast for seven years, and in that length of time has lost only one four-round fight. Some record. He holds a mule in either glove, as he has beat Johnnie Jordan, Joe Benjamin, Oakland Jimmie Duffy, and others. In each of his bouts with the trio named he floored his opponent. Farren knocked out the go-getter, Johnnie Trambitis, and in one round. The fans are still talking about Farren's last appearance at Vernon when he gave the much-touted Salvadore the choicest boxing lesson he had ever received, and Farren at that time had Salvadore helpless. Schlocker is another boy who also yielded to the touches of Farren when Farren met and defeated him.

Freddie Wilder, of Cleveland, who boxed the best around Chicago, is a protege of Jimmy Dunn, who managed Johnnie Kilbane, for ten years featherweight champ. Record of Wilder's last eight bouts is interesting. He won over Ever Hammer, ten rounds, Chicago. Draw with Bud Christiano, ten rounds, Detroit. Knocked out Shuffle Calahan, four rounds, Chicago. Knocked out Jack McCarthy, eight rounds, Chicago. Knocked out Morrie Johnson, five rounds, Chicago. Draw with Macario Flores, six rounds, Tacoma. Exhibition bout with Morrie Schaffer, six rounds, Omaha. Draw with Jimmy Hanlon, ten rounds, Aurora.

The main event at the Wilmington Athletic club, in Wilmington, Wednesday night, will see Farren and Wilder in action, at weights of 135 pounds. The semi-final brings together Tony Fuente, of Los Angeles, and Sunshine McClure, of Idaho, at 170 pounds.

Spreckels Sells Out Famous Race Horses

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Baron Long, noted San Diego millionaire horse breeder, today announced the purchase of the famous A. B. Spreckels racing establishment at Napa for a consideration in the neighborhood of $150,000. Long declared he hoped to perpetuate the Spreckels ambition of raising "wonder" horses in California, stating that among the horses he had acquired, one of them, a little gangly legged colt, out of Hymir, mother of the mighty Morvich, was possibly one of the most promising youngsters of the present year.

In all, Long acquired forty brood mares, twenty-four sucklings and four horses in training. The six months old colt, as yet unnamed, is the first Hymir colt since Morvich that shows promise of developing into a worthy successor of the former racing flash, Long said. Hymir had just one colt after Morvich, a young filly which unfortunately was lamed and is now owned by Herbert Fleishhacker, banker.

Out of the running, Pittsburgh came through with a double victory over the Chicago Cubs, 9 to 3 and 10 to 6, and drew closer to the second-place Dodgers.

Rip Collins held the White Sox to four hits, while Detroit was hitting Faber and Lyons with gusto, the Tigers winning easily, 8 to 2.

Inter-Sectional Games On Football Schedule

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Two or three years ago there developed a tendency in the middle west against inter-sectional games. The great number of intersectional contests arranged for the approaching season shows how completely this movement collapsed. If it survives at all, it lives merely as a theory.

Football, in truth, may be regarded as one of the forces that go to enhance the national solidarity of his country through its far-faring football outfits and all the interchange of hospitality and the friendly, if rugged, rivalry that are involved in these inter-sectional migrations.

Chicago, which met Princeton in 1921-22 and Georgia in 1922, entertains Brown at Stagg Field next month.

Minnesota will play its first inter-sectional game in years on November 22, when it plays host to Vanderbilt. South Dakota comes to Northwestern on October 4. Yale plays Georgia and Maryland

Colgate's experience at Ohio State last year, culminating in the memorable 23-23 game, was so pleasant that the New Yorkers have agreed to journey to Lincoln, Nebr., for an October 18 game. Colgate will receive a lot of attention in Nebraska where it is recalled that it beat Syracuse 16 to 17 last season, whereas Syracuse had previously beaten the Cornhuskers. The Oregon Aggies will also come to Lincoln.

Marquette, of Milwaukee, a team that will bear watching, has a heavy inter-sectional schedule. The Wisconsin Irish will play at Annapolis and in Boston.

Indiana will have Louisiana State as guest on October 11. The following Saturday Butler will meet another Indiana eleven, Centenary, coached by Bo McMillan.

St. Louis, Detroit and Notre Dame will be the western teams visiting West Point this season, all in a row. Centenary visits St. Louis November 27 and Detroit will entertain W. & J. at Detroit on November 1.

Notre Dame will try to repeat in Princeton on October 25 and Georgia Tech will migrate to South Bend to play Notre Dame on November 1.

There is talk in the far west that Montana, just admitted to the Pacific coast conference, will spring a surprise upon her sister elevens this season. Just what basis exists for these reports is not apparent since Montana has not been in the limelight and her resources are not known. Exendine, of Washington State, sends word that he will have a hard time turning out a worthy team since losses through graduation have been serious with no worthy replacements.

Mandell Wins Over Burns at Hollywood

Youth won out over age and experience at the Hollywood Legion stadium last night when Sammy Mandell, flashy eastern boxer brought his California fight record to three straight victories with a decision over Oakland Frankie Burns. Mandell led the fight throughout, poking the veteran with rights and lefts almost at will. His blows did not have enough force, however, to lay the Oakland boxer out, but his speed and ability to hit gained him a victory in every one of the four rounds. Eddie White was given the shade over Eddie Diggins in close battle and Young Bello and Nicholas Antonio staged a whirlwind draw in the fifth event. Sammy Santos and Jack Griffin fought a tame draw and Freddy Ellis knocked out Eddie Savage in the first round of their bout. In the curtain raiser Dicky White outpointed Snowy Johnson.

LEAGUE LEAD IS DEPENDING ON 'IF'

Yankees and Philadelphia Meet Today; Washington And Boston Play

By FORD C. FRICK
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Yankee baseball hopes, so low a day or so ago, were riding high again this morning—riding on the crest of a Yankee victory and Washington defeat.

The Yanks won handily yesterday with the excellent pitching of Herb Pennock. Washington lost in a moment when it seemed they were safely home with their first pennant fast in the clutches of a victory-mad populace.

Now the Yankees are a single game behind the Harris men, with three games left to play. Another victory for New York, another defeat for Washington, and the race will be tied.

Alex Ferguson was the boy who took the Washington measure yesterday. The victim was Walter Johnson. The rampant Red Sox met their sternest test when they faced the Washington ace. Harris today has no one so strong to send back. And Boston still has Ehmke and Quinn in reserve.

Today the Yankees again meet Philadelphia and Washington plays Boston. If the Yankees win and Washington loses, the race will be tied. If both clubs win, the Yankees will still have two games in which to make up that scant deficit which now separates them from the American league leadership.

Brooklyn and New York both rested on their laurels yesterday, rested and prepared for the final frenzy of struggle today. The Giants, with three to play, can still lose one and ride to victory. No one expects Philadelphia to wallop the Giants, but, as Dodger fans point out, they may do it.

Tunney Doesn't Seem Anxious for Battle

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Amid all the talk of a Tunney-Gibbons battle indoors before the Xmas holidays emerges one tanglible fact. Gibbons and his manager, Eddie Kane, have been more eager for this battle than Tunney seems to have been.

Perhaps this is because Gibbons will receive more money than Gene if the two meet.

Or maybe Tunney and his manager, Billy Gibson, are not working in such close harmony as might appear. Gibson failed to get McTigue for Gene and the marine regrets that exceedingly. He could get more credit by beating McTigue—that is he could get a world's title—than he could should he beat Gibbons, even granting he would have much less chance of beating Tommy than Mike.

What Tunney would like to do would be to win a world's title and then retire. He has no love for the boxing game or things associated with it. He has plenty of money, a good business and lots of friends. And take it from the writer, he is the prince of all fighters who ever stood in a ring.

They want another six round bout in New York between Stribling and Berlenbach. Six round bouts usually are not popular with the fans. But now everyone knows that six rounds between Paul and W. L. are equal to 20 rounds as other fighters box.

Jack Reddick, even though knocked out by Paul Berlenbach, made so good a fight that he is certain to get another engagement in the Garden shortly. It looks as though he will be asked to meet Frankie Britton.

Eagle Pin Artists In Win Over Lions

The Eagle pin artists took the measure of the Lions last night at the Glendale recreational center, winning two out of three games and rolling up some good scores. Lane, for the victors, was high man when he bowled over the pins for a count of 233 in the third game. The score:

TAGGING THE BASES

The speeding Senators struck a rut in Boston and had their lead cut to one game, when Ferguson outpitched Walter Johnson, Washington ace, by 2 to 1, while the Yanks were winning from the Athletics.

FOR GAME'S SAKE

By LAWRENCE PERRY
Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Bit by bit the Minnesota Northmen are getting back to their pristine gridiron stride. The time is coming when Bill Spaulding is goin to lead his Viking crew to the top.

As showing the steady, if not spectacular, rise in Gopher stock, consider her recent history as relates to Wisconsin. In 1921 the Badgers won, 35 to 0; in 1922 the score was 14 to 0; last fall it was a tie, 0 to 0. Or take Iowa. In 1921 the Hawkeyes won, 41 to 7. Next year Iowa won, 28 to 14. Last fall the Gophers prevailed, 20 to 7. That is pretty good.

Observers of western conditions are not yet satisfied, however, that Minnesota's material is as satisfactory as in 1923. If this is the case, the Northerners are likely to find the going pretty rough in more than a few spots this season.

In a paragraph written a fortnight ago, the writer brought out the point that the rules forbid the ball being held for the kick-off. The basis for this statement was rule 9, section 2, which holds that the kicker's side shall be behind the ball when it is kicked. It should be pointed out that at its recent interpretation meeting in New York the rules committee decided that one man may be offside to hold the ball for the player who kicks off. This man should not be regarded as being offside.

Every year there is graduated from Notre Dame a band of star football players who scatter into coaching jobs, north, east, south and west. Every summer the ardent enthusiasts of South Bend —where Knute Rockne could be mayor, if he cared to hold that office—fill the air with repining over next season's outlook. And while pessimism is thus abroad, Rockne goes blithely ahead and arranges a schedule that is tougher than the one of the previous year.

Which inclines one to the belief that South Bend's annual tale of woe is more or less a press-agented matter. For every year, by the time October is well established, the world knows that the South Bend institution has turned out another real eleven.

In truth, Notre Dame always has several real elevens. No one man seems to be essential in the Rockne scheme of things. If a star goes out, for one reason or another, he has a waiting star to slip into his place Nebraska, the Army, Princeton, Wisconsin, Georgia Tech are among the teams the mid-western Irishmen meet this season.

One of the inventives for Notre Dame this fall will be the prospects of a trip to the west coast in the course of the Christmas holidays this winter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Stribling, the southern light heavyweight, showed against Ad Stone of Philadelphia, in Newark, that it is high time he take a rest.

W. L. is not made of steel, nor even of hard rubber, and while Pa Stribling may have thought so, he ought to know better after watching his boy clinch and hold his way through twelve rounds against the energetic and always willing Philadelphian.

From the ringside were distributed opinions concerning the outcome which reflected, as it seemed, the personal enthusiasm of the critics, but there was not a man present who, if he were honest, would admit that the Dixie scrapper fought a satisfactory battle.

At the start, spurred, perhaps, by the booing of a huge delegation from Paterson, N. J.—Stone's home town—W. L. went in after Stone as though intent upon knocking his head off. And he did give him an honest lacing. But in the second he slowed down, and Stone held him even. Things were even in the third, with Stone, however, doing most of the advancing.

In the fourth Stone was coming in all the time, and Stribling was content to clinch and massage his opponent in close. But the blows were harmless. Stone got over a beauty to the face in the fifth which looked as though it hurt the Southerner.

From then until the tenth, Stribling seemed to gather new life, and gave Stone as good as he sent, if not a little better. It was in the ninth that Stribling landed his best punch, a right to the jaw.

The eleventh was even and the twelfth was Stone's. Upon one occasion he caught Stribling with his feet crossed and sent out a pushing sort of blow—it looked almost like one of those accidental wallops. Anyway Stribling went to the floor, springing up again with a smile to show that he wasn't hurt. Nor was he, and Stone's wild attack that followed did no harm.

Taking the fight as a whole, Stone was much more active than Stribling, who did not seem to be in as good condition as the Northerner. And finally W. L.'s clinching made the crowd sore.

GRIDIRON JOTTINGS

BERKELEY—Because of the almost entire newness of the squad, great interest was manifested in the opening game for California against Santa Clara this afternoon and a big crowd was forecast.

STANFORD—Injuries to members of the squad of the Sacramento junior squad caused the calling off of today's game against the Stanford freshmen. The 'varsity had two practice games against battleship teams.

WALLA WALLA, Wash.—Wyman Ratchford, 185-pound guard, has returned to Whitman. Freddie Corkrum, diminutive quarter of last year is giving way to Tilton who is calling signals in scrimmage and will start the game against Oregon Aggies at Pendleton next week.

SALEM, Ore.—According to the dope the score in today's Oregon-Willamette game when the final whistle blows should be 41 to 0. That is the average for the last twelve years.

SEATTLE — Coach Bagshaw will throw a mixed bunch of regulars and substitutes into a doubleheader opening the 1924 football season at University of Washington stadium this afternoon. The first game is scheduled with the West Seattle Athletic club with the U. S. S. Maryland squad rounding out the day.

LOS ANGELES—The highly touted U. S. C. players were expected to easily rout the California Tech today in the opening game of the football season for U. S. C.

A gift of $10,000 has been offered in England to start a movement to teach the clergy how to speak and read clearly so that congregations may better understand the services.

SPORT WISDOM

By WALTER CAMP
Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Much interest is expressed out in the Middle West as to how Iowa is going to get along on the gridiron after her change and under the coaching of Ingwerson.

Since Iowa came east under brother Ted, and came back with a victory, things have not gone so well. And, in view of the fact that Illinois and Michigan both made such good records last year and carry over a strong line of prospects; that Stagg has about as good a veteran line as he has had for a long time; that Minnesota, in spite of the loss of Martineau, has great confidence in Spauldin's development of teams, and that Ohio State, after two bad seasons, is making unusual efforts to come back, Iowa realizes that she faces a mighty stiff proposition, and that Ingwerson will have his hands full.

Outside the conference teams, Notre Dame and Marquette will also have to be reckoned with, and Marquette is particularly dangerous now, as they have planned for their meeting with the Navy early in October, and mean to make that a memorable occasion. Nebraska, the "giant-killer," also should be reckoned with, although the strain and the price of victory was, at least temporarily, the health of their coach.

"Red" Grange of Illinois, the scorer of twelve touchdowns and the gainer of 1260 yards in 296 minutes, is the man that all the opponents of Illinois are watching this year. Zuppke, last year, used him when he had to, and he always made good. If Zuppke can get a mate for him, Illinois will go far. And the story goes that they really have. But the opponents know a good deal more about "Red" Grange than they did previously, and he is going to be very closely watched.

R. Belcher Objects to Methods of Committee

R. Belcher, a member of the Citizens Bond Committee of Twenty-nine, requests The Glendale Evening News to publish the following communication:

To The Voters of Glendale—As a member of the Citizens Bond Committee of Twenty-nine I wish to advise my friends, as well as the other good voters of Glendale, that the executive committee is sending out letters with the committee of twenty-nine names attached and stating that we are all boosters for all of the bonds. I wish to tell you good voters that we are not boosters for all of the bonds. I am not boosting for any other than for the fire department and I take pleasure in explaining the methods used in the boiling down of the committee to the four or five men who remain on the committee at a meeting held September 15 at 102 East Harvard street when a committee of four members of the twenty-nine present passed a resolution denying the privilege of any member of the committee sitting in or listening to the action of the committee unless he was 100 per cent for all the bonds.

That motion automatically put myself and about twenty others off the committee and for that reason I don't feel that they are treating the rest of the committee fair in using their names to the literature. I object to the committee's unfair method in putting a bond issue over on the people. I, as a member of the committee and knowing the workings of the committee, urge the good voter to vote no on all bonds, except the fire department.

R. BELCHER,
605 West Colorado boulevard.

SHYEST ANIMAL

Of all wild animals, the okapi, which is about the size of a large stag but hornless, is said to be the shyest. It lives in Central Africa in the country peopled by pigmies. The okapi's head tapers to a point, and its lips are soft and flexible. In its upper jaw it has no teeth. It is vari-colored, being yellowish white about the head and chestnut brown and reddish black in other parts of the body.

PLANS OVERLAND ENDURANCE TEST

B. W. Sloan, Inc., to Enter In 100-Hour, Non-Stop Economy Run Monday

One of the most spectacular demonstrations of endurance and economy ever staged by an automotive organization will be launched Monday morning, September 29, by Willys Overland dealers of Southern California, when about thirty Overland cars will leave simultaneously, one from the Willys-Overland plant in each town, on a 100 hour non-stop run.

Each Willys-Overland dealer has entered a car in this novel event and competition is keen as to who will make the best gasoline mileage and show the best record on oil and water and general condition of the car.

The Overland entered by B. W. Sloan, Inc., 905 South Brand boulevard, will leave the door of the local Willys-Overland plant at 9 o'clock, sharp, and will continue running without a stop of the motor until Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Guess on Gasoline

Those interested in learning what real economy is, are invited to come to the Willys-Overland salesroom and make a guess as to the amount of gasoline which will be consumed on the 100 hour run.

Friday the score will be posted and each guesser can check and see how well he judged the ability of the Overland. The correct or nearest guesser will be awarded a prize.

"A lot of people are going to get the surprise of their young lives when we finish," said B. W. Sloan of B. W. Sloan, Inc., local dealers.

Salaries for clerks and carriers ranges from $1400 to $1800 a year and that of special clerks is as high as $2,000. Those eligible to apply for positions are citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 years.

Local Safe Is Opened By Yegg, $15 Taken

The safe of the Glendale Manufacturing Co., at 5396 North San Fernando road was opened last night and $15 stolen by thieves who also made off with two tires from a truck belonging to the company, reports Lieutenant W. As the plant is located outside the Glendale city limits, the Los Angeles sheriff's office was notified and Deputy Sheriffs Harrington and Peoples of the robbery squad came out, bringing with them a fingerprint expert and photographer. The subsequent investigation revealed that the combination on the safe had been worked. Some good fingerprints were obtained, reports Lieutenant Royle.

BOND PARADE PLANS ARE COMPLETE

Committee Announces Line Of March and Formation Order for Big Event

Final plans were perfected for the bond parade on Monday at the meeting of the Citizens' Bond committee last night at bond headquarters, and reports from precinct workers indicated that every section of Glendale had been covered by those interested in seeing the bond issue election carries. Luncheon and service clubs, individuals and business firms have responded to the call of workers to take part in the afternoon parade and indications point to the affair being larger than ever seen before in Glendale.

G. O. Russell, chairman of the bond parade committee, with his assistants, mapped out a line of formation and the route to be taken by the machines, and while other clubs may come in later, they will be given a place in the line as they appear.

Steadiness Shown In Industry and Finance

opinion expressed today is that there is too much money in the country today to allow of any sharp rise in interest rate. The bankers realize that part of the farm profits of this season still are "paper" profits and may be wiped out by injudicious marketing on the part of the agriculturalists and that danger from adverse weather is not past, although it is growing less constantly. Nevertheless, they are a unit in declaring the farmer will have money this fall. That surely will mean increased buying power, they say. It also will mean that thousands of people will be counting on getting or contriving to get a part of the farmers' money.

The bankers add that one of the most healthful signs of the situation is that the farmer does not seem inclined to part with his cash foolishly. Experts in the farm mortgage field declare there is little evidence of inflation or "delusions of grandeur" on the part of the men who make their living from the soil. Farm lands have shown little increase in price valuation as a result of the present harvest. Demand for farm lands has made its appearance, however, for the first time in some years. No period of extravagance or frenzied buying is forecast. Most of the farmers, reports indicate, are paying their old debts, buying what they need and protecting themselves against a future year which may not possess conditions so advantageous as 1924.

Discuss Mergers

The trend towards mergers and consolidations has been given full consideration by the men assembled here who undoubtedly will handle the financing of the majority of these combinations. A score of deals involving a merging of interests to cut costs have been under discussion. This not only includes the combining of various railroads, but the consolidation of groups and individual concerns in the industrial field.

Mergers are directed toward the cutting of the cost of production at the top instead of the bottom. The labor situation has given rise to little if any discussion by the expression of satisfaction over the present increase in employment and its accompanying buying power.

CALLS DISTRICT REPUBLICAN MEET

John R. White, Jr., Issues Notice of Gathering on Next Thursday

John Robert White, Jr., president of the Sixty-first District Republican club, announces that a meeting of Republicans will be held at the Harvard High school Thursday night, October 2, when clubs for each city and town of the district will be organized to work for party interests. With the formation of these bodies it is hoped to reach every precinct in the district and to concentrate on weak spots.

Speakers of importance have been invited to address the meeting, Mr. White said, and it is expected that much valuable information will be given concerning the present day crisis. It is very important that Los Angeles county be organized, he points out, and everyone interested is urged to attend the meeting and bring friends who may also be interested.

The Sixty-first assembly district is the largest in population and area in the Ninth Congressional district and has heretofore furnished the largest Republican majorities, he said, "and it is the desire of the district club to keep up this fine record."

TUJUNGA NOTES

TUJUNGA, Sept. 27.—Several conferences relative to the opening and improving of Tujunga boulevard from Sparr Heights west have been held between representatives of the Regional Planning commission, road commissioners and property owners interested in the project. H. N. Fowler of Verdugo City is one of the leading advocates of the plan. The boulevard as planned would connect with Los Robles avenue in Tujunga and form a continuous thoroughfare along the base of the Verdugo hills clear to Sunland, connecting en route with Monte Vista boulevard, Manzanita drive and other main thoroughfares of the communities.

Plans for an athletic club, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, are rapidly taking concrete form in the preparation of membership cards which will soon be sold by teams working for the project. A building with showers, lockers, athletic equipment and other facilities of an athletic club is planned for property belonging to Post 250, American Legion, on El Centro street, near Sunset boulevard. The building as planned will cost $2,000. Tennis and handball courts are planned.

Nearly fifty guests attended the picnic at Brookside park given by the executive board of the Tujunga Parent-Teacher association. Teachers, trustees and board members of the school were guests. October 3 has been set as the date for a reception to the teachers.

Post 250, American Legion, is planning the annual turkey shoot for the Sunday before Thanksgiving, the location probably at the Begue ranch on Michigan avenue.

There will be a culinary tour on October 16 of five states under the auspices of the Woman's club. Cars will leave the club house on San Ysidro street and travel to various residences representing California, Alaska, Florida and Massachusetts where the favorite dishes of these states will be served.

Mrs. L. Eakin was honored by a surprise shower at the home of Mrs. J. M. Goode a few days ago when several friends presented her with a number of fine gifts. Among those present were: Mesdames Wright, Bobo, Champ Eakin, Al Wood, Coke, Sam Eakin, Satterlee, Overholser, Wakefield and Morgan, Misses Georgiana Bobo, Bonnie Eakin and Louis Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bloodgood celebrated their first wedding anniversary with a trip to Catalina Island.

Homer Wood of Los Angeles has been visiting his mother in Tujunga.

Mrs. George Huse and daughter Hazel have returned from an outing near San Diego.

Miss Esther Hurd of Compton has been spending a week in Tujunga with Miss Juanita Heminger.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Sept. 27.—As October 2 draws near, local residents are beginning to wonder if any protests will be heard on the forthcoming sewer. For the convenience of those who may wish to express themselves against this project, announcement is made that a hearing is set for 10 a. m. next Thursday, at the Los Angeles city hall. It is believed by the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce that protestants will be few, as all right-of-ways and easements and necessary proceedings have been ascertained prior to the drafting of the ordinance.

The district outlined in the resolution includes that extending from Eagle Dale avenue on the west to Maywood avenue, two blocks east of Eagle Rock boulevard and from Hill drive south to the former southern city limits of Eagle Rock. It is estimated that within six or eight weeks, work will begin on the Eagle Rock sewer.

School children, who this summer have patiently raised dahlias, the Eagle Rock community flower, need feel no disappointment over the fact that the plan for the annual Dahlia show has been abandoned.

The Eagle Rock Parent-Teacher association has arranged to have a dahlia booth at the coming Harvest Home festival. All children who have grown dahlias will be permitted to exhibit their flowers at this booth. Mrs. C. D. Wentworth is to have charge of the dahlia display.

H. G. Warren, 5156 Eagle Rock boulevard, is presenting the school children of Eagle Rock with free tickets to the Home Owners' exposition, now in progress on York boulevard. Mr. Warren is making this gift in the interest of homes, to the children who call at his office, as long as the tickets last.

Mrs. C. L. Dunlap of San Diego was the house guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. F. Leland Meacham. Mrs. Dunlap left Thursday for her home in San Diego.

500 Killed, 4 Villages Destroyed In Fighting

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Five hundred peasants and soldiers have been killed and four villages destroyed in fighting between revolting peasants and Roumanian troops in Bessarabia, according to a dispatch today from Moscow.

The soviet government has issued formal denial that the peasant uprising in Bessarabia was a Bolshevik aggression. The Russian government claims that the Bucharest government sent a huge army to suppress the revolt. Bessarabia formerly was a Russian province. It was occupied by Roumanians after the war.

On a Nebraska farm recently a pig with 26 toes was born.
